GREAT BRITAIN'S PART EXPLAINED

Sir Edw. Gray Uses Quiet Manner Before House of Commons.

ON GERMAN NEGOTIATIONS

Before Crowded House and Many Distinguished Outsiders—His Exposition Won for Him Support in the House

London, Nov. 27. — Sir Edward Gray, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in a quiet and assuming manner—the manner which belongs to the British Parliament—but with intense impressiveness, laid bare in the House of Commons this afternoon the part Great Britain played in the negotiations on Morocco with which Europe was very close to war during the Summer. At the outset he referred to the disclosure by the German Foreign Minister, Herr Von Kiderlen-Wachter, the conversations which had taken place between the German Ambassador and himself.

This disclosure, he said, was not complete and he was under the necessity of putting more fully before the House of Commons the part taken by the British Foreign Office.

The House was crowded with members, and the gallery with distinguished outsiders, including most of the diplomatic corps. Nothing was withheld. Sir Edward stated frankly that the greatest anxiety had existed, but fortunately was able to add that the negotiations had cleaned the slate between Germany and Great Britain. Anxiety was not constant, but intermittant, and was caused by the fact that the negotiations might at any time reach a dead lock. It looked on one or two occasions as if a deadlock could not be averted, if that had come some power signatory to the Algeciras act might have suggested a conference, the course of which Germany, which had been sounded on this subject, said might not be acceptable.

"That," declared the Foreign Secretary, "is what caused the anxiety, for we have a situation wherein the partition of Morocco might begin without agreement between Germany, France and Spain.

Great Britain, he continued, also received information which gave rise to apprehension that the settlement contemplated by Germany might be the partition of Morocco, arrived at by negotiating, in which it was not intended Great Britain should not be a party. Germany disavowed this intention, stating that she desired only a re-arrangement of French and German colonies.

The secretary's lucid exposition of the negotiations and the firmness he was able to show he displayed during the week, won for him the support of the House, with the exception of a few radicals of "peace at any price" members, who believe that the firmness which prevented war will estrange Great Britain and Germany. announcement that if a British Minister could not say what Lloyd George said in his much discussed speech that Great Britain would cease to be a power, brought forth a great cheer, as did also his pronouncements that the Cabinet would at all times protect British interests.

In respect Sir Edward's statement flatly contradicts that of the German Foreign Minister. The latter said that Great Britain had kept Germany waiting for an answer to the communication with regard to the dispatch of the Panther to Agadir, while the British Foreign Secretary insisted that the delay in replying to inquiries was all on Germany's side.

In the lobbies, after the speech, confidence was expressed in Sir Edward's conduct of affairs during the crisis, and satisfaction that the government is working for better relations with Germany. It is believed that the speech will have a reassuring effect in Germany.

The Prime Minister during his reply to criticisms that the government had acted with too much secrecy, protested that the House had never had greater opportunities to discuss international relations than at the present time. He declared that in the interest of the peace of the world the government's policy will be continued.

Later Sir Edward Gray spoke on Persian and other matters. He defended the Anglo-Russia agreement which prevented the two nations from trying to gain advantage of each other in Persia. When the Nationalists got rid of the Shah they hoped also to get rid of Russian influence but this was perfectly hopeless. Had they shown a friendly attitude towards Russia things would have gone well.

James Ramsay MacDonald, socialist and labor member, while welcoming the Foreign Secretary's friendly references to Germany, criticised the secrecy with which diplomatic negotiations are carried out.

John Dillon, Nationalist, also condemned the secrecy of the Foreign Office.

Other radicals criticised the government's failure to intervene in the war between Italy and Turkey, and the whole foreign policy generally.

The Prime Minister in replying said that so far as the government was concerned, the negotiations, first and last, had two objects—to safeguard British interests and to maintain treaty obligations with other powers.

"The world is now in possession of the whole of our treaty obligations," said Mr. Asquith. "There is secret arrangement of any sort or kind which has not been fully disclosed to the people. If the conduct of the government is to be judged by measure of our treaty obligations, the House is now in a position to apply that measure."

E DEMOCRATS ARE UNITED

So S[illegible] Speaker Champ Clark—Will Re[illegible] So—Says Public Opinion Favors Democracy. States His Position.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Speaker Champ Clark today declared that he had devoted the last three years chiefly to getting the House Democrats together and holding them together, and that after 17 years of factional fighting the Democrats "are united and by the blessings of God will remain so."

"I did not do it all by a long shot," he added, "I had lots of help and every Democrat who participated in that troublesome, laudable work deserves his full share of the honor. Where there was only despair in Democrats' hearts, there is high hope now."

In this way the titular head of the Democratic lower House of Congress made indirect reply to criticisms of former Presidential candidate W. J. Bryan as to the Speakership no longer carrying the leadership of the House. Mr. Clark referred to the great importance of unity and wisdom among the Democrats to draw out voters not belonging to the Democratic party.

"The most important feature of the extraordinary session of Congress, from a political standpoint," said he, "was the fact that we pulled together, worked together, fought together and won together. We replaced the old habit of defeat with the new habit of victory, the bad fashion of quarreling among ourselves with the better fashion of taking counsel together, and then presenting a solid front to the astonished enemy.

"The trend of public opinion is toward the Democrats. President Taft's long trip seems to have left things in status quo."

The Speaker said the recent elections prove that wherever the tariff was the sole or principal issue the Democrats won and that when President Taft vetoed the tariff bills it was inevitable that the tariff would be the leading issue next year.

"One of the most preposterous canards put into print since Gutenburg invented movable type," added the Speaker, "is the charge that I am in favor of the forcible annexation of Canada. There is not a fact in the universe on which to base such a slander. I never at any time or place stated, or even hinted, such a wicked and quixotic scheme to any human being. I have never dreamed of such a thing and would oppose it to the utmost.

"I have frequently, for years, expressed the hope that there might be a union of the two countries by mutual consent and for the good of both. It always seemed to be a friendly suggestion, because we are neighbors of the same blood and speaking the same language, but as the Canadians do not seem to want that, there is an end of it."

ANNUAL FIELD TRIALS

Began at Waynesboro, Ga., Yesterday —Twelve Starters

Waynesboro, Ga., Nov. 27.—The annual field trials of the Continental Field Trial Club, began here today with the membership stake, in which there were twelve starters. One of the features of this stake is that owners might handle their own dogs or have an amateur handle them. The stake was won by Pinehurst Dot, a setter owned by Leonard Tufts, of Pinehurst, N. C., and handled by U. M. Fleischman, of New York. Ufton Archie, a setter owned and handled by Russell Perkins, and of Pomfret, Conn., was second, and Lady Idol, a setter owned and handled by G. C. Parsons, of New York, was third.

The open derby which probably will have 18 starters, will begin tomorrow. The grounds are in good condition and birds were found in good numbers today The judges were W. G. Hundley, of Callands, Va. and G. T. Walker, Brunswick, Ga.

MRS. VIRMILYA HELD.

Coroner's Jury Charges Her With Poisoning Policeman.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya was held to the grand jury by a coroner's jury which today investigated the death of Policeman Arthur Bissonnette. She is under arrest, charged with having poisoned him.

Little new testimony was added to that brought out by previously published results of the police investigation. Witnesses told of Bissonnette living at the Vermilya home, of his illness and of his death, and the subsequent examination of his viscera for poison, which was found in quantities.

Police told of Mrs. Virmilya's sudden illness while under surveillance, after she had sprinkled poison from a pepper box on some food served to her.

Little testimony was brought out concerning the other nine deaths that have occurred in Mrs. Vermilya's home relating to the fact that the oxicogitis found arsenic in the viscera of two of nine who died there.

MULFORD WINS VANDERBILT CUP

Lowers All Previous Vanderbilt Records at Savannah Yesterday.

DE PALMA A CLOSE SECOND

Only Six of Fourteen Cars to Start Finished Race—Race Won Without Usual Toll of Human Life.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 27.—When a white streak flashed by the judges' stand today at the finish of the seventh Vanderbilt cup race, the American automobile world hailed Ralph Mulford, driver of a Lozier, as a new champion.

Not only had Mulford lowered all previous Vanderbilt records, he also had surpassed the San Monica performances of Harvey Herrick, in covering 202 miles at an average of 74.63 miles an hour. At that he was pushed to within the nerve wrecking 292 mile contest by Ralph DePalma, the brilliant driver of a French Mercedes. DePalma finished just a little more than two minutes behind the winner and eight minutes in advance of the other Mercedes entrant, Spencer Wishart.

Only six of the 14 cars to start in at the finish and much to the surprise of every one such stars as Bob Burman, the "speed king" and David Bruce-Brown, winner of last year's grand prize race, were among those forced to drop out through the defection of their racing machines.

The race was run and won without the exaction of the usual toll of human life. Among the numerous accidents which befell contestants to the detriment of their chances to possess the coveted trophy, only one imperilled life and limb. A rear wheel on Bruce-Brown's Fiat car flew off at the head of the long Ferguson stretch, after a turn had been taken at slow speed. Bruce-Brown and his mechanician escaped unhurt to live and race another day.

Bob Burman was the victim of downright hard luck, sustaining one of the most unique accidents to his Marmon mount in the history of automobile racing. He had just completed the seventh lap in record time, one minute and a half behind Mulford, the leader, when a loose stone flew up and struck the gasoline tank connection with sufficient force to destroy any further usefulness. Burman examined the damaged tube for a moment, and abandoned the race, realizing that he would be hopelessly distanced before he could make repairs. Joe Cyrus Patchfle, driver of the other Marmon entry, also was running a grand race when an air pump gave way during the ninth lap and forced him out of the contest. Joe Matson took his Fiat back to camp when a leaky radiator threatened the destruction of his engine by fire.

Ideal conditions prevailed during the running of the race. The air was just cool enough to make overcoats comfortable. The oiled roadway glistened hard and smooth in the Autumn sunlight and with the track kept clear by a cordon of State troops, drawn around the course, the drivers found it easy to let their cars out to the limit. A high banked turn just above the grandstand made it possible for the racers to round in front of the spectators at full speed and pass the grandstand at a 70-mile-an-hour clip.

Dozens of tires were burned up, by the heat generated by the friction of such great speed. Mulford said tonight that he owed his victory to his good fortune in having only to make one tire change as much as to the speed of his car. DePalma was less fortunate, being compelled to stop four times for new tires and at the finish he was running practically on the rim of one of the rear wheels.

DePalma took the lead at the beginning of the race and held it for four laps. Then Mulford passed him and was never headed. The former's tire troubles began immediately after he had made two record rounds on the second and third laps, which he made in 13.14 and 13.16, respectively. He was leading Mulford by 48 seconds at the end of the fourth lap. On the next round Mulford was one minute and 40 seconds ahead of him. Then he gradually pulled away while DePalma was worrying with his tires until he was almost six minutes ahead in the eighth. DePalma spurted desperately to regain the lost ground. Some of his sensational turns near the grandstand exciting the wonder of the crowd.

At the beginning of the 17th and last lap Mulford was but a scant two minutes ahead and the spectators arose and cheered him as he dashed by for the finish.

Like an angry wolf on his trail, DePalma's beautiful grey Mercedes swerved around the curve at a 75-mile clip and flew down the straight-away in a vain pursuit.

"No 8 (Mulford) in the stretch!" cried the announcer through his megaphone and the crowd rose as one and strained eager eyes toward the spot half a mile away where the victor would first come into sight. A roar of Niagara-like proportions rent the air as the graceful white flyer entered the range of vision and continued until it had crossed the finish line without mishap and with a record for the last lap that made it impossible for the pursuing Mercedes to beat. O'SHAUGHNESSY CASE TO JURY

Testimony All Heard—Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's Mental Condition Testified to—Girl Engaged to Husband Testifies.

New York, Nov. 27.—The trial of Mrs. Frances O'Shaughnessy for the murder of her husband on May 5th, "in order to save his soul," was completed today with the exception of the summing up by the attorneys. The case probably will go to the jury tomorrow afternoon.

Dr. William B. Mabon, general medical superintendent of the Manhattan State Hospital and a professor of mental diseases, was a witness called by the prosecution today to prove Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's sanity. Referring to an examination he made of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy's condition in the Tombs, Dr. Mabon said: "I asked her about the prayer which she had said after she shot her husband and she said: 'I told God I had sent George to him, and for him to be merciful to his soul.' She told me that since then she had realized how foolish some of her ideas were, especially saving his soul by killing, but that she believed it at the time she shot him. She told me that while at Bellevue she had started to write a letter to George to let him know she did not think he was bad, but stopped when told she would be sent to Mattewan. The 18-year-old girl whom O'Shaughnessy loved better than his young wife, was another witness today.

"Were you engaged to George O'Shaughnessy?" asked Assistant District Attorney Edwards.

"Yer sir," the girl replied faintly.

"When did you first hear that he was married?"

"On the Monday before the murder. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy met us and asked me if I knew George was her husband. I told her no, then she asked George if he had told me he was not married. He said 'Yes'."

"Did you ever permit him to make love to you after that time?"

"No, sir."

DECAPITATED WIFE AND COUSIN.

Coroner's Jury Returns Verdict of Double Murder.

Kenosha, Wis., November 27.—Pasquale Marchesi, who decapitated his wife, Rosaria Marchesi, and his young cousin, Pasquale Marchesi, with a hand axe, will be arraigned tomorrow on a double charge of murder in the first degree. A coroner's jury, after investigating the deaths of the victims today, returned a verdict charging the husband with murder.

The facts brought out were the same as given in Marchesi's confession, save the fact that the woman lived several minutes, her head nearly severed, after the husband had carried his two babies from the house.

Marchesi did not testify. Marchesi has indicated that his defense will be the "unwritten law," while his attorneys say they may attempt to prove the man insane.

HAVE FORMED SYNDICATE.

Will Probably Make Lexington, Ky., Trotting Horse Centre.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 27.—It was reported here today that a number of Eastern millionaires have formed a syndicate which will buy several great farms near Lexington and will transform them into trotting farms, making Lexington the trotting horse centre of the United States.

Included in the syndicate are said to be W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central; W. B. Dickerman and David L. Look, of New York; C. K. G. Billings, Harry K. Devereaux, of Cleveland; G. G. Moore, of Detroit, and Edward A. Tipleton, of Lexington.

The first step in the plans of the syndicate was the purchase last week of James R. Keene's 1,000 acre Castleton farm. The syndicate already owns the Kentucky Association trotting track, located here.

NEW WITNESS FOR MRS. PATTERSON

Says He Saw Shooting and Corroberates Mrs. Patterson's Story.

PROBABLY TO JURY TODAY

New Witness Holds Composure When Closely Questioned---Dead Man's Mother a Witness and Contradicted Defendant

Denver, Col., Nov. 27.—The defense in the Patterson murder case today placed on the stand a witness to the shooting of Charles A. Patterson by his wife, Gertrude Gibson Patterson. He is Francis J. Easton, of Minneapolis.

Easton was in Denver the day of the shooting, he testified. He corroborated the story of Mrs. Patterson that she had shot her husband after he had struck here twice and knocked her down and was standing over her with his arm raised to strike again.

Easton said that he had gone to the sanitarium at which Patterson was a patient and had started for a walk in the neighborhood.

Some distance from the sanitarium he observed a man and woman, apparently quarrelling. When he was 300 feet from the pair he looked back and saw the woman reading a newspaper clipping, he said. She handed the clipping to the man and he struck her in the face. A second blow felled her. She struggled to one knee, he said, and fired twice. After a pause, she fired two more times, he said.

On cross-examination, Easton said he saw A. B. Shugart, the witness of the shooting placed on the stand by the State, running to the spot, but did not go over to the body himself, because he did not want to get mixed in the affair.

Special Prosecutor Benson questioned the witness closely in regard to his life history, but failed to shake the witness' composure.

"Did you know Emil W. Strouss?" the prosecutor asked: "I do not."

"Have you been back to the scene of the shooting for the purpose of testifying here?"

"I have."

Easton was the last witness for the defense and the State began its testimony in rebuttal, its first witness being Mrs. Mary K. Patterson, mother-in-law of the defendant.

The witness declared that her son was ill at her home at a time when the younger Mrs. Patterson had declared Patterson assaulted her. The son was so weak that he had to be lifted up in bed to be fed.

He had been taken to a sanitarium on a stretcher. She contradicted the defendant on a number of other points.

When court adjourned today there was a porspect of the case going to the jury by tomorrow night.

A. C. L. GOOD ROADS TRAIN

Reached Rocky Mount Last Night—Blind Tiger Nabbed

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 27.—The Atlantic Coast Line Good Roads Train which left Richmond last Thursday on its way south will arrive in Rocky Mount this afternoon at 6:11. A special committee from the Chamber of Commerce has arranged to entertain the party while in this city, and the visitors will be tendered a smoker tonight by the committee. The train will be here until 12 tomorrow

The manager of the Gem theatre has offered his theatre to the party in which the meeting will be held tomorrow morning.

The Chamber of Commerce has been doing all in its power to insure its success, and there will doubtless be a large crowd attending from all sections of the county.

Saturday night Sergeant Reams, of the local police force, assisted by Mr. C. V. Harris succeeded in working up and roping in a blind tiger, which for some time has been operating in the heart of the business section on North Main street. The blind tiger was the pressing club of Frank Parker, a negro, and his place has been suspected for some time but owing to lack of sufficient evidence his arrest has been withheld, and while no whiskey was found on his place there are a number of witnesses who have been secured who will swear that he has sold them whiskey at various times.

The manner in which he was arrested Saturday night was due to the fact that there was an unusual number of drunken negroes on the street, and Mr. Harriss telephoned Sergeant Reams, stating that if he could secure a certain negro that the rest would be easy, which was done with the foregoing results.

Parker was to have been tried in Recorder's court this morning but owing to so many cases ahead of his, a special term of court has been ordered for tonight. He has been granted bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Arrival of Additional Rurales Increases Anxiety Over Situation—Consul Resigns to Serve as Private to Fight Reyistas

El Paso, Nov. 27.—The arrival of one hundred rurales, bringing the strength of the Juarez garrison to 500 and the receipt of a disquieting letter by General Pasqual Orozco from Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez, recently candidate for vice president of Mexico, today increased anxiety over the situation south of the Rio Grande.

Dr. Gomez in his letter, it is said, declared that President Madero had failed to carry out the "plans of San Luisbispo and the writer felt called on to see that they were carried out.

Troops Reach Douglas

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 27.—One troop of the second squadron of the Sixth United States Cavalry, reached Douglas today. It patrolled the border for a few hours and then went into camp at Warren, reporting all quiet.

Manuel Questa, Mexican Consul in Douglas, has sent his resignation to Mexico City, at the same time requesting permission to serve as a private in the army to fight the Reyistas.

LISBON SUFFERS RIOT

Mob Offered Firm Resistence---Two Dead, Several Injured

Lisbon, Nov. 27.—The disorders which occurred here last night, owing to the expulsion of two Chinese women for the illegal exercise of a "cure" for blindness, at one time attained serious proportions. All the streets in the center of the city were occupied by cavalry who charged continuously in all directions.

The populace which was armed, offered firm resistance and shots were freely exchanged. Suddenly a great explosion was heard on the Placadrom Dro. The cavalry galloped up, unslung their carbines and poured volley after volley through the windows of a cafe in which a great mod had taken refuge and barricaded themselves with chairs, divans and other furniture.

The mob answered the attack until all the large panes of glass were riddled with bullets. Then they surrendered. Two persons were found killed and a large number wounded on the floor of the cafe. A similar scene was enacted at another store where some of the Republican leaders had taken refuge from the furious populace. The rioters, unable to cope with the military, fled into the taverns and other places from which they hooted and fired upon the passing soldiery until the latter entered and expelled them.

After the explosion of the bomb the mob invaded the hospital of Sao Jose which occupies the buildings of the former Jesuit College of Santo Anto building in 1757, whence they tried to carry off the wounded, but were repulsed by the soldiers.

The disorders lasted until 3 o'clock this morning, but everything became quiet. An official statement gives the number of killed as two while 34 others were wounded and 66 arrested. The statement attributes the disorders to "enemies of the republic."

CONSIDER CALLING TROOPS.

To Quell Strike Among Colorado Coal Miners.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 27.—Labor troubles in the coal camp of northern Colorado, where a strike has been in progress for some time, have reached a stage where the advisability of calling for troops is being considered according to news received here today.

At Louisville, Colo., the situation is regarded as particularly critical. The mines there are owned by a Wyoming corporation. President Brown, of the company, said unless conditions improved within the next two days he would ask Governor Shafroth for the protection of Federal troops to which he says the company as a non-resident property holder is entitled.

Since Saturday it is reported that the union and the non-union miners have been in practically open warfare. Strikers and women sympathizers paraded the streets, flourishing revolvers and other weapons and making threats at all entrances to the camp to prevent the entrance of strike-breakers.

Every station of the Denver & Interurban Electric Line was guarded any any man looking like a miner was compelled to give a strict account of himself.

DEAD BODY FOUND

Missing Thomasville Citizen's Body Found by Hunter

Thomasville, N. C., Nov. 27.—After a search extending through two days by a posse of citizens, the body of Charles L. Everhart was found this afternoon by a hunter. It bore marks confirming previous suspicion of foul play.

Everhart disappeared Saturday morning, being last seen with a cousin, Robert Leonard, and it is known that he had a sum of money exceeding $100 on his person. Leonard, when questioned gave conflicting accounts of his presence with Everhart and is now being held pending investigation.

The authorities were advised of Everhart's disappearance Saturday afternoon and upon his failure to show up that night a search was begun. The coroner, it is said, will withhold his report until tomorrow.

Leonard has been arrested and hurried by automobile to Lexington for safe-keeping.

M. E. CONFERENCE CLOSED SESSIONS

Reading of Appointments by Bishop Hoss Early Yesterday Morning.

A SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT

Few Changes in Ministers—Kinston's Hospitality Unbounded—Very Impressive Services on Sunday—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 27.—The close of the 76th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference this morning marked the end of one of the most pleasant sessions in the history of the conference. The hospitality of Kinston has been unbounded and all attending circumstances and conditions have been such as to add to the pleasure of the delegates and visitors.

The morning session adjourned shortly after 10 o'clock, there being but little business before the body except the reading of the appointments. There were no changes made in the leading appointments, except those affected by the "time limit" and not a great many were made in the list. As a rule, there is less complaint regarding the appointments when the changes are few and but little dissatisfaction was expressed immediately after adjournment.

Sunday was a beautiful day at conference, beginning with the old-time Methodist love-feast, and is there any happier occasion? At least, those who have ever attended one will say there is nothing they so much enjoy as this early morning hour of song, prayer and testimony, when the elements of bread and water are partaken of in brotherly love and love to God. And this was the way Sunday began at conference at 9:30. The main auditorium, Sunday school room and galleries of the church were filled to overflowing at an early hour, remaining so during the 11 o'clock service, when Bishop Hoss preached.

The love feast was presided over by Rev. Dr. A. D. Betts and Rev. G. D. Langston, two of the oldest members of the conference. There were prayers and words of testimony, many coming from the old saints in Israel, to give strength to those just starting on the way. The testimony of "Railroad" King, as he is affectionately known by the conference, expressed in the words of an engineer's life, brought tears to the eyes of the whole conference. Songs of praise interspersed these prayers and testimonials of God's goodness. Without music of the organ, the congregation joined heartily in singing "More Love to Thee, Oh! More Love to Thee." And again, "I Love Tell the Story of Jesus and His Love." Several members of the conference kept at home by illness or other troubles, were remembered in a beautiful prayer by Rev. H. M. North.

When the time came for the Bishop's sermon, the church was crowded to its very doors with such a crowd as never gathered there before, not excepting, perhaps, the time of its dedication last August. Many were unable to obtain seats, but stood patiently during the whole time of the sermon. It was a great privilege to listen to such a sermon, such a mighty exposition of the text.

After the sermon the solemn ordination services of the deacons and elders in the Methodist Church was celebrated. Those who were ordained deacons were: Frank Culbreth, Robert Carraway, Thomas Grant, M. W. Dargan, Henry Smith, Lewis Hayman, Jesse Ormond, George Andrews, John Blalock, C. J. Harrell, Thomas Eliers and R. L. Beasley. The elders ordained were: W. E. Trotman, H. E. Spence, W. C. Martin, W. W. Peele, John Wright, and W. T. Phipps.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Epworth League anniversary was held, the address being made by Rev. J. Marvis Culbreth. This important branch of church work is coming to its own, for it has reached its majority this year, being 21 years old. Mr. Culbreth discussed the present strength and importance of Epworth League work. There was an enthusiastic audience of Epworth Leaguers present.

At 7:30 in the evening Dr. F. N. Parker, of Trinity College, preached to a large audience.

Following the great love feast at the host church on "Conference Sunday" and the other events of the Sabbath, the conference assembled for its final session at 8:30 o'clock this morning and the church was filled at the early hour.

The name of D. C. Geddie was referred to the committee for the superannuated relation.

Report of the Board of Education was submitted by Rev. J. C. Wooten and was adopted. One of the features of this report was the recommendation that this conference raise $40,000 of the endowment fund for Trinity College, and that the Western North Carolina Conference raise a like amount.

The Board on Church Extension submitted a report recommending the appropriation of $10,441 for that work.

Bishop Hoss then called the minute questions, involving the important statistics of the conference among the more important of which are: Number of church communicants in this conference (covering half the State of North Carolina) 80,019. Number of local preachers, 90. Infants baptised this year, 774. Adults baptized this year, 2,771. Epworth Leagues, 72. Epworth League members, 3,125. Number Sunday School, 695. Number of Sunday School scholars, 61,460.

Appropriations by this conference include the following: Foreign missions, $21,934; Home Missions, $15,761; church extension, $8,005; support of presiding elders, $18,398; to support preachers in charge $156,615.

The conference adjourned to meet next year with Hay street church at Fayetteville.

The Appointments.

The usual interest attended the reading of the appointments by the Bishop which are announced as follows:

Raleigh District.

J. H. Hall, presiding elder; Cary circuit, G. W. Fisher; Clayton circuit, C. W. Robinson; Four Oaks circuit, T. H. Sutton; Franklinton circuit, W. W. Rose; Granville circuit, M. D. ACCIDENT LAST EVENING.

Bicycle and Automobile Collide at Third and Princess Streets.

Early last evening at corner of Third and Princess streets, a negro boy of about 17 years of age, mounted on a bicycle, and Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, driving his automobile, figured in an accident that resulted rather disastrously to the bicycle, but fortunately had no other serious outcome.

Dr. Caldwell stated that as he was going east up Princess street he saw the negro lad and another boy racing west down to street on their bicycles and that he attempted to turn into Third street in an effort to get out of their way, as they seemed to be watching each other and not noticing where they were going. His car was almost out of Princess street when the negro on the north side struck the fender of the right hind wheel of the automobile and was thrown heavily to the ground. The boy was stunned for a few minutes and Dr. Caldwell carried him into the Odd Fellows' building on Third and Princess and thoroughly examined him, finding nothing beyond a few bruises. The boy soon recovered and was able to walk home. The front wheel on the bicycle was practically demolished by the force of the impact and the fender on Dr. Caldwell's car was dented.

Good Colored Citizen Dead.

John Bradley, a well known and respected colored citizen, died at his residence, corner of Sixteenth and Dock streets, yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock. The funeral service will be held from St. Stephen's church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and friends and acquaintances are respectfully asked to attend. All members of Hanover Lodge, No. 14, A., F. & A. M. are requested to meet at their lodge room at 1 o'clock, by order of the Worshipful Master, D. W. Chestnutt.

To Conduct Wrestling Classes

The physical culture department of the Y. M. C. A., because of repeated requests, has arranged for a class in wrestling two afternoons each week from 6:30 to 7 o'clock. This class is to be in charge of Mr. W. F. Tomiz, who has proved himself very proficient in the manly art. The object of the class is not to train men for wrestling matches but to teach them the art for the exercise that they will surely get Wilmingtonian in New York.

Saturday's New York Herald in its Southern notes, says: "C. N. Evans, of Wilmington, who is at the Hotel Martinique said: 'Wilmington is the coast city of the State and has a good harbor. With the completion of the Panama Canal we look for a boom. Already plans are under way for several lines of railroad to be built into Wilmington'."

The Yoke Fellows Band

The Yoke Fellows of the Y. M. C. A., met in their regular monthly session last night in the boys' room. Splendid reports were given of the revival services at Castle Haynes and Wrightsboro, also of the regular work. The Band added two new appointments each week and two new men were received into the membership. A personal workers' training class has been organized in the band, having as its object the training of speakers and leaders of the Yoke Fellow meetings.

"Life of Christ"

A moving picture exhibition of the "Life of Christ" will be given at Phonix Presbyterian church tomorrow night and it is expected that a large audience will be present to witness this most interesting and educational spectacle. No admission will be charged but a Thanksgiving offering will be taken for the Barium Springs Orphanage.

Football on Thursday.

The Wilmington High School football team is practicing every day in preparation for the great gridiron contest Thursday of this week, when the eleven will meet the Raleigh High School team at League Park for a battle royal. The local boys hope to be able to redeem themselves, having suffered defeat at the hands of the Raleigh team last year.

INSTALS MONOTYPE MACHINE.

Wilmington Stamp & Printing Co., Adds to Its Equipment.

Messrs. C. B. Myers and Albert J. Theiler have been here for several days, the former installing a monotype machine and the latter erecting a new Stonemetz cylinder press for the Wilmington Stamp & Printing Company, which now has one of the most complete and up-to-date job offices in the State. The press is made by the Challenge Machine Company, of Grand Haven, Mich., and is a fine piece of machinery. The Monotype, manufactured by the Lanston Monotype Machinery Co., is a wonderful invention and is even more interesting in its operation than the linotype, which completely revolutionized the printing business. This is the first one to be installed in Wilmington and one of the few in operation in North Carolina. Both the press and the monotype machine have been set up and are now ready for operation.

GAVE LAST LECTURE.

"Sunshine" Hawks Will Leave Today for Indiana.

At the Boys' Brigade Armory last evening Prof. A. W. Hawks, the "sunshine philosopher," delivered his last lecture in this city for the present visit at least. He spoke on "People I Have Met," and the lecture delighted the good sized audience that heard him. Mr. Hawks was at his best, and kept his hearers in an uproar. He leaves this afternoon on the Northern train for Evansville, Ind., where he goes to fill an engagement. This is Mr. Hawks' second visit to Wilmington this year, and he has been heard with delight by hundreds of citizens, who will look forward to the time when he will come again.

GRAY HAIR INCREASES AGE

Simple Old Fashioned Remedy Will Bring Back the Natural Color to Faded or Gray Hair—Removes Dandruff Quickly.

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't remain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days, itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

Buy Oranges and Grapefruit by the Box

This is the economical way. The fruit costs less. It keeps until used. No handling after packing—and only properly handled before packed. And you do not have to telephone for a few when company comes, or do without them for breakfast because the cook forgot to order them.

No other country in the world can produce an orange so spicy, so sweet, so juicy, so fragrant, so strength-giving, as Florida—the native home of the orange. No other country can produce such grapefruit—with such texture, such richness, such flavor, and so delightfully toning and vitalizing to the system. It is a matter of soil and climate. Florida is the natural home of the citrus fruit—everything there combines to weave health and comfort and pleasure into the fruits.

The Florida Citrus Exchange Ships the Best of Florida Fruit

A cooperative organization of the most progressive growers, the Florida Citrus Exchange protects consumers against unripe, immature, inferior fruit. Every box shipped by the Exchange bears its brand in big red letters. Your dealer can supply you Florida fruit by the box—insist that he does so.

Every box of Florida Citrus Exchange fruit contains booklet of recipes compiled by a noted authority, and coupon which leading manufacturers will accept for half the price of tableware in silver, cut-glass, etc. Booklet without the coupon for four cents in stamps. Address FLORIDA CITRUS EXCHANGE, Tampa, Florida.

Children Are Blessed With a Sweet Tooth

So are you—and you should encourage it, for the system demands sugar more than meats. Of the three nutritive elements which support life—sugar, protein and fat—sugar is the most important. You can't eat too much of it in its correct form.

It is the native sugar in good ribbon cane syrup that gives it its wonderful food value—the whole substance is wholesome sugar.

The "sweetness" of many syrups sold to the public is a little sugar or saccharine matter added to an insipid by-product "filler"—tasteless until the sugar is added. Such syrup, by itself, or made into cake and candy, has about as much food value as shavings.

ALABAMA SYRUP

is the finest example of a succulent Georgia ribbon cane syrup, made by the old plantation "open kettle" process, put into cans direct from the evaporator while hot—thus insuring the permanency of its natural sweet flavor and inimitable taste. It's the good old-fashioned taste you remember in your grandmother's pantry—the most welcome food children can have.

Any good grocer has it.

DAY'S DOINGS IN RALEIGH

Chas. Noell Goes to Prison---Naval Reserves at Washington, N. C. —Senatorial Campaign— Other News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—Chas. Noell was brought here today from Lexington to enter upon his 15 years sentence to the penitentiary as the principal in the sensational, "white slave" case there in which he and his wife were convicted in sensational trials that stirred the entire State.

Mrs. Noell is to serve five years for her part in the crimes against society. Her health is such just at this time that she cannot be brought to the State's prison yet.

In compliance with orders from Adjutant General Leinster, of the North Carolina National Guard, Col. W. C. Rodman, of Washington, N. C., mustered in at Washington tonight a new division of Naval Reserves with C. L. Morton as lieutenant in command. This division comes in to the Guard as the Sixth Division, Naval Reserves, succeeding the division at Oriental mustered out recently. The other five divisions are at Elizabeth City, Plymouth, Windsor, Hertford and Newbern.

Superintendent S. C. Griffin, of the Marion graded schools, gets the distinction of being the "advance guard" of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, being about the first of the up-State teachers to arrive for the annual sessions of the Assembly to begin Wednesday evening in the new auditorium. It looks now like there will be not less than 1,000 teachers here for the Assembly and large numbers will come tonight and tomorrow to be here for the State Literary and Historical Association. Indications are that the 1911 session of the Assembly will excel all previous sessions in interest and attendance. However, there would be far more teachers here if the pay of the rank and file of the rural school teachers was such as to better enable them to bear the expense of these important means of improving their equipment for the best and most effective work as teachers. It is declared that really disgracefully meagre salaries will debar hundreds of teachers from profiting by the attendance on the Assembly.

Appeals from Yancey, McDowell, Henderson, Rutherford, Polk and Burke counties, constituting the Fourteenth Judicial District, will be up for argument in the Supreme Court this week beginning Tuesday morning.

Rowland Lovelace, a young white man, 18 years old, was taken from Raleigh to Shelby, Cleveland county, today to answer to the charge of seduction under promise of marriage in Cleveland. He had disappeared from Cleveland and was located last week in the employ of the Lattimore Lumber Co., near Raleigh. Deputy Sheriff R. M. Gadney came from Shelby to carry Lovelace back to answer for his crime.

Just back from stops in Craven, Brunswick, New Hanover and Duplin counties, Governor W. W. Kitchin is manifesting a highly satisfied state of mind with reference to the status of his campaign for the United States Senate as successor to Senator F. M. Simmons. An especially surprising condition is that he should find any special encouragement in Craven county, the home county of Senator Simmons. However, Governor Kitchin is asserting that he found friends in Craven who predicted that he would carry the county in the Senatorial primary. While he is not counting on this he insists that he has a surprisingly large following there. The Governor has been out of the city for several days and quantities of mail accumulated, including letters from every section of the State reflecting the conditions in the locality of each writer. And the Governor talks enthusiastically of his prospects for victory as he says he finds them reflect in these hundreds of letters. Indeed, those who have heard the Governor discuss the situation since his return to the executive office declare that His Excellency really begins to feel that he will win the nomination in the very first primary. He is free to asert, too, that he finds the contest narrowing down to a measuring of strength between Kitchin and Simmons and insists that it will come to this before the primary.

United States Senator F. M. Simmons was in Raleigh for a short while today and talked confidently of steady gains being made in his fight to retain his seat in the Senate. As he expressed it 'Campaign developments are highly satisfactory and I am gaining strength all the time." He seemed to have neither the time or inclination to go into details today.

In the meantime, as the activities in the Kitchin and the Simmons camps are quickening perceptibly there is nothing laggard about the campaign work for ex-Governor Aycock and Chief Justice Walter Clark. They and their friends are pushing campaigns with vigor and it is positively asserted that there are most encouraging rallyings to the standard of each. Governor Aycock scorns the idea that he will ever retire from the race, insisting that he will win, and Judge Clark is equally positive and confident about the contest he is waging for this much coveted seat in the United States Senate.

For the surpassing excellence of his recently published book "The Life and Works of Bernard Shaw," as compared with the literary effort of other North Carolinians during the past year, the Patterson Loving Cup was awarded to Dr. Archibald Henderson, of the chair of mathematics, University of North Carolina, tonight at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association. The presentation was by United States Senator Lee S. Overman who paid high tribute to Mrs. J. Lindsay Patterson, of Winston-Salem, by whom the Patterson Memorial Cup is awarded each year to the North Carolinian doing the best literary work for the year, and to Dr. Henderson and other literary workers of the State. The cup was held the past year by R. D. W. Connor for his "Life of Cornelius Harnett." Other features of the session of the association tonight were the address of President E. K. Graham, on "Prosperity and Patriotism," and an able literary address by Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of Virginia. Dr. Smith's theme was "Histories of States and the Ideal State History, for text book purposes contrasted with 'gubernatorial stream,' histories of the present and past." "More schools," has been a most valuable slogan for this State, he declared, but the time is at hand when there must be the new slogan," better text books for the schools."

He declared that the State history of the future, the one that must be written for effective use in the schools must have a sparkling concise story of the rise and progress of the State, not to exceed fifty pages and then be followed by a constructive story of forces that developed the State.

He would treat in this division the rise and progress of agriculture, transportation and manufactures, civics, literature, art, education, religion and close with biographies of representative leaders in all of these fields of endeavor that have contributed to the making of the State and its scope of development. The time is at hand, he insisted, for abandoning the monarchical formula for history writing, inherited from England and forced on Democratic schools in this country, and comprehensive histories such as he indicated.

MR. R. C. CARSON SHOT.

Accidentally Hit While Hunting—Whiteville News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 27.—On Saturday while Mr. R. C. Carson, of Charlotte, was out hunting wild turkeys he was accidentally shot by a young boy named Morrell, who mistook Mr. Carson for a turkey, and shot at him, the shot taking effect in his face, neck and shoulders. It seems that Mr. Carson was behind a tree calling them and young Morrell slipped up behind and shot. Mr. Carson is spending the Winter here for his health, and the unfortunate accident is greatly regretted by every one. He is painfully, though not seriously injured.

Hon. H. L. Godwin is in Whiteville today and is receiving a warm welcome from his many friends here. He came over from Durham yesterday.

Court convened here this morning with Judge Carter presiding and Solicitor Sinclair prosecuting for the State. There is a full docket and several sensational cases to be tried. Judge Carter is in Whiteville for the first time, but no man visits Whiteville who is more universally popular than Mr. Sinclair.

Saturday the Teachers' Association of Columbus county met here with a large attendance. The teachers of Columbus are very much enthused over the association and the excellent papers read by the ones on the programme prove that they are heartily in earnest.

Editor Gantt is still confined to his room, but hopes to be out in a couple of days.

The Columbus County Sunday School Association will meet at Chadbourn in its annual session on Saturday and Sunday, December 9th and 10th. Specially trained workers will be on hand to assist in conducting the meeting.

Mrs. R. C. Carson entertained a few friends on Friday evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Mary McGuigan, of Lake Waccamaw.

New York, Nov. 27.—Joseph Cassidy, Democratic leader of Queens county; Louis F. Walter, his lieutenant, and William Willett, Jr., pleaded not guilty today to indictments charging that they conspired to buy Willett's nomination to the Supreme Court. Each was admitted to $5,000 bail and the case was adjourned until December 5th.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUN.

A. & M. Students Pull Off Event—Football and Basketball.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—The annual cross-country run, open to any student of the college, was held Saturday afternoon, the event being won by F. C. Smith, the time being 17 minutes and 11 second. Last year the winning time was not as good as the time today by 38 seconds. Second place was won by G. R. Trotter, third by C. M. Kephart, and fourth by H. K. Nash, Jr. There were 20 contestants, the course being out Hillsboro road from the postoffice crossing to Method and return, a distance of three and one-half miles.

J. A. Chambers, of Asheville, N. C., has recently been elected captain of basketball five. Team practice is held every other afternoon in the Machinery building at the State Fair Grounds. The schedule, as arranged up to the present time, has been announced by Manager W. R. Mann, and is as follows:

January 20—Wake Forest at A. & M.

February 2—Guilford at A. & M.

February 9—Trinity at Durham.

February 10—Guilford at Greensboro.

February 17—Wake Forest at Wake Forest.

February 24—Trinity at A. & M.

The football team has been put through the hardest kind of practice ever since the Wake Forest game, the good results of the work showing in the team work that has been manifested by the 'varsity this week. Two of the regular 'varsity men have been laid up all this week with injuries, but will report for practice Saturday and will be in shape for the great game with V. P. I. in Norfolk on Thanksgiving Day.

TO GET RID OF

RHEUMATISM

If we suffer with Rheumatism and desire to get rid of it we must make up our minds to subject our systems to the proper course of treatment for a while. The only way to cure oneself of Rheumatism is to remove the cause—expel the irritating uric acid from the blood; every other method of treatment has proved a failure. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. This medicine goes down into the circulation, and expels every particle of the sour, inflammatory uric acid which is the one great cause of the disease. The cure can be greatly hastened with a little care and self denial by the patient. In the first place do not let anything interfere to prevent your taking S. S. S. regularly and according to directions; be guarded in your eating, because an attack of indigestion will always aggravate the symptoms of Rheumatism. Do not expose yourself to damp and inclement weather any more than is necessary. When S.S.S. has had time to rid the blood of the uric acid; then these little restrictions may be left off. A Warm Bathroom

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Every mother should be careful that the children take their baths in a warm room. The chill of a cold room is dangerous after coming out of the hot water.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater brings bathroom or bedroom to just the degree of warmth you want in five or ten minutes. All you have to do is to touch a match.

The Perfection Heater burns nine hours on one filling and is always ready for use. You can move it anywhere it is needed. There is no waste of fuel and heat warming unoccupied rooms. Just the heat you want, when and where you want it.

The Perfection is fitted with an automatic-locking flame spreader that prevents the wick being turned high enough to smoke and is easy to remove and drop back when cleaning.

Drums finished either in turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel; light and ornamental, yet strong and durable—suitable for any room in any house.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Chicago is to have a magazine for the publication of poltical productions. Here's a chance for North Carolina genius.

Probably James M. Garfield would like to be the candidate for Vice President if Col. Roosevelt will accept that Ohio statesman's nomination for President.

Some men pretend not to be egotists, but they would run for Congress at the drop of a hat and drop the hat themselves. A man without egotism lacks confidence in his ability.

Says the Jacksonville Times-Union: "Women interested in aviation are forming a society." However, it mustn't be presumed that all women who "go up in the air" over small things are at all eligible to membership.

In the United States an officeholder now and then gets his head "chopped off", but in China they are beheaded. There is considerable difference in the method of disposing of undesirables here and there.

In Boston a crowd chased a sixty-year-old woman who wore a hobble skirt. Owing to the woman's age, that was remarkable, but had she been young the incident would have been quite natural and not worth mentioning.

The Roosevelt bandwagon looks good to the Philadelphia North American, one of the leading Republican papers in Pennsylvania. It has climbed in, although it is not insurgent. Neither is the Colonel an insurgent so's you'll notice it.

Some people do not hesitate to make money even out of Thanksgiving Day. Butchers in New York have been caught weighing turkeys with lead slugs in them. The slugs are slipped out again while the turkeys are being wrapped up for the customer.

France offered medals to the veterans who fought Germany in the war of 1870. It was estimated that there were 600,000 survivors, but 900,000 applications for medals are already on file. Our own pension list shows us that all the soldiers in a war do not get killed.

Well, that $50,000,000 fund might restore the price of cotton if it is paid out in premiums to farmers who will cut down their cotton acreage one-third. Otherwise, it should be invested in building warehouses, for they surely will be needed if the South plants another 35,000,000 acres in cotton.

Do your Christmas shopping early before somebody else thinks of it and gets the pick of everything. A great many people get left because they are late Christmas shoppers. Merchants should do their Christmas advertising now, so people will know where to do their Christmas shopping while they have the money.

Anson K. Cross, of Ashland, Mass., has sued his wife for divorce because he has come to the conclusion that "another woman will suit him better." He seems to be more frank than most of them, but he could have been even more frank by declaring that he was tired of the wife he has on his hands. If he gets his divorce his wife will cease to be Cross.

THE PAVING PROBLEM

There are certain problems in cities which should not depend upon the biennial variety of municipal politics usually prevailing in this country. We should say that at least four or five of these problems are health and sanitation, paving and street improvements, police administration, and waterworks and sewerage. Any one of these departments should be looked after by men with experience, with service long enough to make them experts, and not a one of them should have to depend upon an administration which may go out every two years and be succeeded by another. Under the ordinary municipal political system the "ins" are liable to be put out of office just about the time they begin to learn something. The "outs" succeed in getting in and they have to begin at the bottom and do the best they can in handling these important features of city administration.

We will venture the assertion that one-half the public money is thrown away in the average city while new administrations and new men are getting acquainted with their duties and jobs. When the health department of a city gets to be efficient and makes progress it is a crime to disorganize it, and so it is with practically all the departments we have mentioned. Street building and paving is something which requires intelligence and study, if it is to be done economically and satisfactorily according to the most approved methods. The same can be said of the waterworks and sewerage problems. These utilities should be in charge of men who have technical knowledge about them and are strictly on the job. Reforms and improvements can only be accomplished by those who know their needs, but with raw men taking hold every two years, there is no wonder that citizens have so many complaints to make of unsatisfactory service at best and in many instances none worth mentioning.

Let us take the matter of paving and street building. We have seen some of it done without regard to either engineering or knowledge of methods, only to be done over again in a few years. We have seen costly streets washed away by surface drainage instead of having underdrainage. We have observed storm drainage all carried to one outlet instead of being dissipated to different points of discharge. Drainage is often done by imperfect methods, but how are officials to know what methods are best, what material should be used, and how to construct streets and paving substantially and economically. As it is, two-year city politics puts in new men to handle problems about which new officials and employes know nothing. When a man is intelligent and once learns a job he ought to be kept at it, and when cities go to choose municipal administrations they should select the most practical men that it is possible to secure for public service. The Charleston News and Courier on Sunday discussed this paving problem and it says:

"One of the big questions before Charleston is that of street improvement. The Chamber of Commerce has been busy for some time past gathering facts from cities all over the United States as to the manner in which this matter has been handled elsewhere. Secretary McKeand has placed this material at the disposition of The News and Courier, and it is proposed to present from day to day experiences of the various cities responding to the request for information. These figures will show that in the overwhelming majority of the cases the cost of the street paving is assessed against the abutting property. Practically the only exceptions are found in cities where very little paving has been done. The figures for today are for Topeka, Kas.

"How many miles of paving? 70 miles.

"What is the character of this paving? Brick 60 miles, asphaltic concrete 10 miles.

"Is there any other kind of paving? No.

"Which has stood the test of time the best? They are about equally durable.

"What has been the cost per square yard of the brick? $1.70.

"Of the asphaltic concrete? $1.70.

"Is your paving paid for by the city? Street and alley intersections only.

"By the abutting property? Yes.

"Of what material is the majority of your country roads and boulevards constructed? We have no boulevards but have several miles of oiled roads and gravelled and macadamized roads.

"The above facts were obtained through the Topeka Commercial Club, of which Mr. J. Will Kelly is secretary."

Why should the paving question be "one of the big questions before Charleston" or any other city that has the right sort of administration? We mean to inquire why it should be "a big question" for such a body as the Chamber of Commerce? That question is one which should be well in hand by every city administration, and while it is good for Chambers of Commerce to also make a study of the problem, Charleston's city authorities ought to be able to furnish as much information about it as the Topeka authorities. Charleston is probably 150 years older than Topeka. The fact is, the age of a city has nothing to do with it. It depends on the kind of men who look after a city's interests and affairs, and, as to that, there is no guarantee since municipal politics is liable to chang a city administration every two years.

Paving, street building and road making largely depend upon geological formations and the financial ability of a city or county. As for methods, we should say that Charleston and Wilmington would find it profitable to have intelligent membership in the American League of Municipalities, in which all city problems worked to a fine point are discussed and promulgated.

BIG BUSINESS

Mr. George W. Perkins, who has been associated for years with J. Pierpont Morgan, in an interview published in the New York World on Sunday, contributes what that paper itself pronounces an interesting discusion of the problem of business in relation to law.

Mr. Perkins' interview covers a whole page of the World and it is exceedingly interesting, since it comes from a man who can speak from the viewpoint of "big business." Mr. Perkins in discussing the government's handling of the trust question predicts that "an era of more gigantic trusts are coming" and his plan is to "let government curb, not crush them."

If we understand what the government is trying to do, it is to curb the trusts and not crush them. However, the people want monopolies crushed, especially those monopolies which use unfair methods and employ immense amounts of capital to crush competition and to take advantage of the public. It looks like a simple matter for the United States and the various States to have plain laws denning the rights of corporations as well as of individuals, with penalties severe enough to punish all who violate those laws. Persistent defiants of law ought to be sent to jail if there is no other way to "curb" them.

In his interview, Mr. Perkins treats of the subject very broadly and comprehensively from his standpoint. The World says "he sees a new world peopled by new men and governed by new principles along with new conditions." Mr. Perkins says we have to deal with "great brains that cannot be judged by ordinary standards, and we have to deal with "business magnitudes that cannot be put under old principles of conduct." As if to prove his assertion, Mr. Perkins reminds us that "This is the Twentieth Century."

Even if the Tewentieth Century, the divine law of right and wrong is the same as it was from the foundation of the world. Big business conducted legitimately, and not in violation of divine and human laws is all right, but when it tramples down the rights and interests of mankind, it is all wrong. It is a question of what is right and what is wrong, and "brains" have no more right to commit wrongs than shall the veriest idiot in the land.

AN ODD INCIDENT OF WAR.

Gen. Fred Funston, of the United States Army, has written a book on the Spanish-American War, and our subsequent war with the Filipinos. His book is entitled "Memories of Two Wars," and in one of the chapters concerning the operations of our army in the Philippines he relates a strange incident that occurred at the seige of Malabon. Gen Funston writes:

"Company L was firing a few volleys, and one of the men having just discharged his piece felt a second blow against his shoulder, it being almost as hard as the kick of the gun. Upon trying to reload it was found that the breech of the piece could not be opened, and it was laid aside to be examined by daylight, which was done in the presence of a number of us officers. Upon forcing the breech open it was found that the base of the copper shell of the cartridge that had been fired just before the weapon had been disabled had been shot away, while mixed all up in the breech mechanism we found the remains of the steel jacket and the lead filling of a Mauser bullet. There was a very pronounced dent on the muzzle of the piece. What had happened was that while the man had the gun extended in the firing position a bullet had gone down the muzzle. This weapon is now in the Army Ordnance Museum in Washington."

A similar incident occurred at the seige of Petersburg during the American Civil War. Years after that fierce conflict, a partially exploded army gun barrel was picked up, and midway the barrel were two minnie balls, one going out and the other coming in. At the point where the bullets met the barrel was so split that the bullets could be seen locked in embrace.

The Petersburg relic used to be seen at a little museum kept at the "Crater" on the battlefield at Petersburg. We saw it there and in all probability it has been preserved. It is a pity it has not been placed where it can be kept for ages.

Delays are not dangerous to the guilty defendant.

The newest big ocean liner is the Gigantic, which has 12 decks. Instead of being an ocean skyscraper she will doubtless be a bottom scraper. The Gigantic is to have golf links, a tennis court and a cricket course for the entertainment of her passengers. It will be a great mistake not to add a baseball diamond and a midway.

Beattie slipped up in thinking people were fools enough to believe his fantastic yarn about that "bearded highwayman." He displayed a certain amount of cunning in that, but he mesirably balled up the whole affair in the manner in which he got and handled the gun which was to give away the crime of wife murder.

Why don't people quit sticking little old cramped up kitchens to their residences? The kitchen ought to be commodious and equipped with so many conveniences that the girls would quarrel over the privilege of doing the cooking. Owing to the fact that the cooking has to be done by the lady of the house, we are in favor of kitchen reform—larger and better kitchens.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A $50,000,000 fund to raise the price of cotton will probably succeed about as well as other attempts men have made to lift themselves by their own bootstraps.—New York World.

New York women have organized a society to protest against wearing stockings at the bathing beaches. A stockinged sea bather in Europe would be a curiosity, but perhaps the chiropodists do better work over there.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The fact that the colored population of the country increased only half as fast as the white in the last decade was significant, but the reports that are now being made from the border States add to the significance. In Kentucky the negroes decreased 23,000, a decrease of 9 per cent., compared with a white increase of 9 per cent.—New York World.

The Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas estimates that in Texas alone the reduction of acreage in cotton next year will be 25 per cent. The acreage in Texas this year was 10,858,000 acres, the largest the State ever had. A reduction of 25 per cent. would bring the acreage down to the lowest in six years. From 1904 to 1905 Texas reduced its cotton acreage 17 per cent. A reduction of cotton acreage to the extent predicted will give Texas 8,150,000 acres. With the farmers receiving less than nine cents a pound for their cotton, whereas cotton brought them 12 cents a pound a year ago, there should not be any doubt about reduced acreage.—Raleigh News and Observer.

According to a statement made by a well-known teacher of dancing, there will be a revival this year of old-fashioned dances. "The rapid and somewhat boisterous dances of a few years ago," he said, "had their day of popularity, but for several seasons the moderate and more temperate movements have taken their place. Possibly, the style of women's dresses had something to do with this. The quadrills and the minuet are in favor with many persons, and they are 'coming back.' There will always be young people who prefer waltzes, even up to the Apache limit, but the waltz of the coming season—and the waltz is really the only dance—will be moderate."—New York Tribune.

Prof. Pupin, the inventor of long distance submarine telephony, has now produced a new wonder. Naturally it has to do with electricity, since that is Prof. Pupin's specialty. With his new apparatus he is going to run street cars and other vehicles with the energy from an ordinary telphone circuit. The telephone current is very weak as compared with that used for traction purposes, but Prof. Pupin says he has found out how to multiply the power to such an extent that the weak current will do the work that is now done by a strong one. And the power is to be transmitted by the wireless. Utilization of the weak circuit means, of course, a tremendous saving in coal consumption and the wireless transmission means an enormous saving in the construction of plants.—Savannah News.

PROF. STEVENS RESIGNS.

Member of A. & M. Faculty Will Leave for Porto Rico.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 27.—Keen regret is felt on the hill over the announcement that Dr. F. L. Stevens, professor of botany and vegetable pathology at A. & M., where he has done very valuable work, has resigned from the faculty to accept a position as professor of plant pathology and dean of the agricultural college of the University of Porto Rico, and director of the tropical zoological laboratory at Mayaguez. Dr. Stevens was very popular with the students and will be greatly missed by them. Mrs. Stevens, widely known for her work in domestic science, will accompany Dr. Stevens and will occupy the chair of domestic science in the Porto Rican University. Prof. R. I. Smith, entomologist and zoologigist at A. & M., will go with Dr. Stevens and will take up similar work in Porto Rico. It is not known who will be Dr. Stevens' successor, no announcement as yet having been made from the president's office.

DID WORLDS OF GOOD

When Life Was a Burden, This Woman's Friend Came to Give Her Prompt Relief.

Escondida, Ky.—Mrs. Frank L. Blake, of this place, says: "I was so weak from womanly troubles that I couldn't do my work, or even walk around.

My back hurt so bad I could hardly be up, and I suffered with pains in my left side, most of the time.

Nothing did me any good until I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic. I am certainly well pleased with what it has done for me.

I have taken three bottles, and it has done me worlds of good. Cardui has strengthened me, and made me feel better in every way. I can do my work with perfect ease.

I sincerely believe if other suffering women will only give Cardui a trial, it will help them as it helped me, for I know by experience that it is the best remedy for sick and run-down women."

There is a reason why Cardui has been so uniformly successful, during the past fifty years in relieving all forms of womanly weakness and disease. It acts with Nature—not against her. Cardui goes to the weak spots and helps to make them strong, thus hastening a cure, in a natural, easy way. Try it.

INVESTIGATION OF ROBBERY

Postoffice Inspectors and Railroad Detectives at Work on Daring Hold-up Near Columbia—Big Standing Reward.

Although railroad detectives and postoffice inspectors, several of them, are carrying on a searching investigation and the Federal government has a standing reward of $1,000 for the conviction of a person in United States Court for robbing the mails, while being conveyed on a mail car or train, there is absolutely no clue as yet to the identity of the person who held the two mail clerks on A. C. L. Train No. 55, near Columbia, S. C., Friday night and secured registered packages, containing all told, several thousand dollars.

At least this is the information, which reaches Wilmington, and news comes also that the authorities have but small chance of ever running down the robber. A Columbia special to yesterday's Charleston News and Courier says that on account of the robbery Friday night there is increased activity on the part of Federal inspectors all over the country. Continuing, the article says:

"Uncle Sam never lets up in hunting for anyone who dares to rob the mails, and that a systematic effort is being made to identify the one guilty of the robbery of the mail car here, no one doubts. That it's a hard matter to rob the mails and get off is recognized, owing to the vigilance and perfection of the postoffice inspectors' system of covering the country closely, and many bold and seemingly inexplicable robberies of mail cars in the past have finally been ferreted out and the perpetrator caught by Uncle Sam's postal inspectors."

The Columbia State of yesterday says that the amount secured by the robber is still unknown and will be until each letter or package can be traced to the original office. This will take some time. Many rumors have been advanced as to the amount taken, says The State, but as stated, it is impossible at this time to give the amount. Some say that over $30,000 was gotten, some say over $50,000, and others say that it was only a few thousand. That it was several thousand dollars is known to be a fact and the chances are that the amount was at least half of the least estimate quoted above. A registered package or letter does not show its value on the outside, and therefore it will be necessary to trace each parcel and determine its value. Although it is customary in the mail service to sometimes put several registered letters or packages into a large envelope, termed a "jacket", and there were several of these "jackets" in the pile taken by the robber, it is thought probably that the total number of packages or letters secured was in the neighborhood of 40. Nothing on the outside of these "jackets" to indicate the number of parcels within or their value.

Mr. H. S. Meredith, of this city, was mail clerk on the car which was robbed and he had as his assistant, B. L. Dreher, colored. The door which the robber entered was not locked, and he was on the mail clerk before the latter could realize it. He demanded that the mail clerk hold up, and the mail clerk did what all other mail clerks heard to discuss the matter say they would have done, raised up his hands in "double quick hurry." The robber demanded the registered pouch, which was lying on a table. Mr. Meredith was preparing to leave the car when it arrived in Columbia, a few minutes later. The robber then noticed the negro assistant, in the other end of the car fixing up his suit case. He ordered the negro to hold up. The negro not only responded quickly, but was still "holding up" when the train pulled into Columbia, it is said. The robber seized the registered pouch, and in jerking it from the table, dropped three packages. He then backed out of the door. In a moment he returned, and standing on mail sacks, reached for the cord governing the emergency brake and pulled it. As the train slowed up, he disappeared.

A Southern freight train was waiting at Royster when train No. 55 left there. As soon as the block was cleared it proceeded toward Columbia, but did not come into the union station, taking the "cut-off", which is near the scene of the hold-up and going to Blanding street. At Blanding street the train received orders and went on to Charlotte. One theory advanced is that the robber caught the freight train, which, it is said, could not have been going much more than four miles an hour at the "cut-off" It has also been suggested that the robber might have had a vehicle of some kind waiting for him and in this way might have made a hasty retreat. There are some who think that he got on the same train he robbed and rode into the union station at Columbia.

"It was expected," says Saturday's Columbia Record, "that the robber would relieve himself of the canvas pouch containing the registered mail matter and because of this belief the neighborhood of the scene, between Royster's factory and the city limits, was inspected during the day. There were no signs of a discarded pouch or even of envelopes that had been thrown away. As the pouch was smaller than the kind used to hold ordinary mail matter, it was possible for the hold-up man to conceal it under his coat and thus attract little attention while he hastily escaped from the neighborhood."

Mr. Meredith went to Columbia again Sunday afternoon on a regular run, returning to the city yesterday afternoon.

Preached Two Fine Sermons.

The pulpit of Grace Methodist Church was filled Sunday, both morning and evening, by Rev. Dr. C. D. Bulla, general superintendent of the John Wesley Class of the Southern Methodist Church, who had been attending the North Carolina Methodist Conference in session at Kinston. The pastor of the church, Rev. J. C. Wooten, was away attending the conference. Dr. Bulla was heard by two large congregations and his sermons were greatly enjoyed.

FROM MR. CROWNSTREAM

He Writes About Northeast River Bridge, Roads, Etc.

Mr. Editor:—The other day I read where a gentleman from Atkinson, N. C., wrote in regard to the Northeast river bridge and he seems to think that the bridge ought to be built at the place where it will be cheapest for, as he says, there is a lot of people who have to pay taxes to pay for such a bridge, who may never use it. As a taxpayer of both New Hanover and Pender counties, I agree with the gentleman so far.

Atkinson, at present, is a good distance from Wilmington, but as soon as we get good straight roads in Pender county, which we are very apt to get as soon as we hire some men to office who are not as slow and antiquated as the present officials are (excepting the sheriff) then you will see people daily in Wilmington who drove in carts and wagons from Atkinson and lots of other places.

Now let us do a little figuring, using the gentleman's own figures (saying for argument's sake that they are correct). If I understand it right he says that the distance is only 2,000 feet longer by the so-called Blossom ferry than it would be by building the bridge below the railroad bridge and it would cost between $7,000 or $10,000 less to build the bridge at the so-called Blossom ferry than it would cost to build it below the railroad bridge. I believe that 100 teams cross the Northeast river per day at an average and there will be at least between 300 to 500 who will cross the river daily as soon as there is a free bridge. A person with team loses at least two cents worth of time, tear and wear for each 2,000 feet they travel and if only 100 people with teams use the bridge daily then the loss in time, tear and wear, is $2 per day or $710 per year, as the bridge ough to last at least 50 years with proper care and attention (which have to be used wherever the bridge is) then the saying will amount to $35,500.00 deducting the $10,000 (which according to the gentleman from Atkinson, the difference in the price of the two bridges, the total saving in 50 years will amount to at least $25,500.00 not to mention the valuable lives and property what may be lost during that time by crossing the railroad track twice unnecessarily, by building the bridge below the railroad bridge. Therefore, I say let us build the bridge below the railroad bridge and save a lot of valuable time (at least $25,500.00 worth for each 50 years) 2 railroad crossings and several funerals. As I understand it, the gentleman from Atkinson together with a well-known gentleman from Wilmington and several others, own a saw or shingle mill near the so-called Blossom ferry, in that case I cannot blame him for wanting the bridge there, but if he wanted to build at the place where it will be most convenient and cheapest to all who may use it, surely he will want it below the railroad bridge. About both counties being taxed for the benefit of a few, that is the way it seems with the so-called Blossom ferry site, it seems, it seems that there is a few men who are interested in the property near the ferry, who wanted the bridge there in spite of H——l regardless of what the taxpayers wanted, and the only way for us taxpayers of Pender county to do is, if the county commissioners desire to build the bridge at the so-called Blossom ferry then we ought to get together and obtain a injunction from the court enjoying the county commissioners from using the county's money to build the bridge there

A injunction will cost, including the Lawyer fee, about $25.00 so 25 or 30 men could very well get together and put in $1.00 a pience for that purpose. I for one is willing to give my share any time.

Don't you think that we people of Fender county (and of the whole State for that matter) could spend our tax money to better advantage by selecting some men for county commissioners who will perform their duties and not do as the present crowd, who simply go to Burgaw, chew a Rag and draw their pay, and let us also send a live man to the Legislature or if we cannot get a better one than the last one we had let us save money by keeping him at home and send a last year's calendar in place, the result would be the same so far as the Legislature is concerned and we would save what we otherwise would have to pay him.

Hoping that we may get things right after a while and thanking you for giving me space, I remain yours for good roads and bridges (at the right places.)

WILLIAM CROWNSTREAM.

TWO BUGGIES FARE BADLY.

Run Into by Automobile on Market Street Road Saturday Night.

Saturday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock, a recklessly driven automobile ran into and badly damaged two buggies on the Market street road, one collision occurring within a few minutes of the other. Mr. George R. Smith, who lives in the eastern section of the county, was driving the first vehicle and the automobile, in passing, smashed a wheel and did other damage to the buggy. A few minutes later a buggy driven by Geo. Maids, colored, was hit by the same car and practically demolished. Those driving the machine did not stop to ascertain the damage to either of the wrecked buggies. Deputy Sheriff Kelly was also on the Market street road that evening, and he was forced to ride his bicycle off the road in order to avoid a collision. Although it was quite dark at the time, he managed to get a good view of the car and he is counting on making an arrest, probably today.

Landed Hog-Killing Bear

Mr. Frank Ganey was in the city yesterday and exhibited to a number of curious people the front paw of a mammoth hog-killing bear that was bagged last Friday by Messrs. John, Andrew, W. H. and several other of the Hilburn family, at the head of Livingston Creek, in Columbus county. Bruin had made way with several hundred dollars worth of hog flesh in the neighborhood and the Messrs. Hilburn went after him with "blood in their eye." He weighed over 200 pounds and had a paw nearly a foot in width.

FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY

Remains of Rev. Dr. James Carmichael Tenderly Laid to Rest in Oakdale Cemetery—Many Beautiful Flowers.

Attended by hundreds of sorrowing friends, both white and colored, sad and impressive but solemnly beautiful funeral services were held at St. John's Episcopal Church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock in honor of the memory of the beloved Rev. Dr. Jas. Carmichael, rector emeritus, of St. John's, whose sudden death Saturday morning saddened the entire city.

In addition to members of the congregation and many friends from all over the city, Wilmington Lodge of Elks, Cape Fear Camp, No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, and the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, each attended in a body and added to the impressiveness of the occasion.

At the hour for the service the vestry, the entire choir of the church, vested, and the clergy marched down the side aisle of the church and halted at the middle aisle, where the procession formed and then marched up the aisle in the following order: The vestry, the choir, the officiating clergy, honorary pall-bearers, active pall-bearers carrying the casket, the members of the family, Cape Fear Camp, Confederate Veterans, and the local lodge of Elks. The local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy were also present in a body, having arrived earlier.

The stated burial service of the Church was used, being conducted by Rev. W. E. Cox, rector of St. John's assisted by Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church; Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and Rev. Edward Wootten. Bishop Robert Strange, of the Diocese of East Carolina, could not arrive in time for the service and was not present.

The entire lower floor of the church was crowded to its utmost capacity, while the gallery was filled to overflowing with colored people.

The flowers were strikingly beautiful and included among the multitude of handsome designs and wreaths were a large cross of white roses and carnations, the tribute of the vestry and congregation, which lay on top of the casket, almost covering its entire length, another beautiful one sent by the congregation of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, colored, and a huge design sent by Wilmington Lodge, No. 532, B. P. O. E., in honor of the greatly beloved chaplain. It was in the from of a cross, standing nearly eight feet tall on a pedestal formed of a crescent, the beautiful flowers being entwined with the colors of the order and bearing the floral inscription, "Wilmington Lodge No. 532, B. P. O. E., and "Our Chaplain," It was a superb design and was the creation of Rehder, the Wilmington florist. In addition to the above there were many other handsome wreaths and designs.

Following the services at the church the remains were tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where the interment was made. The honorary pallbearers were Mr. James Sprunt, Col. T. C. James, Mr. H. C. Smallbones, Prof. Washington Catlett, Mr. Clayton Giles, Sr., Capt. Thos. D. Meares, Col. A. M. Waddell, and Mr. H. C. McQueen, while the following officiated as active: Messrs. Bertram Quelch, G. W. Chesnut, Geo. S. LeGrand, J. Hicks Bunting, H. F. Wilder and Parker Quince Moore.

The body of Dr. Carmichael was borne to the church Sunday night, being escorted by a delegation from the Wilmington Lodge, B. P. O. E., and met at the church by the vestry and other members of the congregation, and friends of the parish. The church was opened early yesterday morning and many friends called for a last view of the body as it lay in state. Numbered among those who called were people from all walks of life, both white and colored, all of them people who had known and loved Dr. Carmichael during the long years he spent about his Master's business.

At St. Mark's colored Episcopal Church Sunday, immediately after the morning prayer, a meeting of the congregation was held and many were the expressions of sadness and regret that the long and useful life of Dr. Carmichael was at an end, for he was dealy loved by the people of that parish. As an evidence of the love and appreciation of the congregation for Dr. Carmichael it was decided to place a memorial window in the church to his memory.

FINKELSTEIN NOT GUILTY.

Pawnshop Man and His Clerks Came Clear of Charge.

Following a hearing before Justice Harriss yesterday, Charles Finkelstein, proprietor of Uncle Charlie's pawnshop on South Front street, and Ed Green and Ellis Schultz, two of his employes, were declared not guilty of having received stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen, a charge on which they were arrested some days ago.

The cases against the pawnshop men grew out of the arrest of Barney Lear, the young white man who was tried in the Recorder's court yesterday with 17 counts of larceny against him. When arrested Lear confessed to the officers a large number of thefts which they did not know he had committed and he aided them in recovering most of the stolen articles, many of which had been disposed of at the local pawnshops. In addition to Finkelstein and his two clerks, three other pawnshop men, operating a place on Market street, were arrested on a similar charge, as was Ed Guion, a colored barber. The three Market street pawnshop men, whose names are unknown to Justice Harriss and his officers, as they were arrested on John Doe warrants, and the negro barber, remain to be tried yet. No date has been set for the hearing of their cases.

It was brought out at the hearing yesterday that Mr. Finkelstein was out of the city at the time the stolen goods were taken at his place and that his clerks did not know when they took in the goods that they had been stolen. It was further shown that Finkelstein and his clerks made every effort to locate the rightful owners of the property when they learned that it was stolen and that they restored the property to the owners when the owners were found.

SERGEANT BURNETT RESIGNS

Popular Officer Will Engage in the Dairy Business

Having purchased the Shadeland Dairy and decided to give practically all his time to the milk business, Sergeant Chas. S. Burnett, who has been one of the most efficient members of the police force for the past 13 years, yesterday tendered his resignation to Chief of Police John J Fowler, who will in turn present it to Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, and the matter of his successor may be considered by the Council in regular session this afternoon.

While Sergeant Burnett has been off duty for several days on a leave of absence and it was rumored that he would not return to duty on the force, his resignation was not presented until yesterday. The department loses one of its most zealous officers, one who came about as near doing his whole duty as it was given to him to see it as any officer who ever served on any police force anywhere. He was a formidable enemy of the lawbreaker and none knew this better than the lawbreaker himself. There are some evil-doers who feared Officer Burnett as they feared no other officer on the force.

It has been known for some months that it was only a matter of a short time until there would be a vacancy on the force, that Sergeant Burnett would engage in business for himself just as soon as he found something to his liking. He is not unfamiliar with the business in which he will engage as his bright young boys have been operating a dairy, known as the Wilmington Dairy, for several years, and have made a big success of it. The two dairies will now be consolidated and later will be known as the Wilmington Dairy. Mr. Burnett will have personal charge of the business with office at corner Eighth and Princess streets, the old offices of the Shadeland Dairy. He will run four wagons and will undertake to supply an even larger number of people than the Shadeland Dairy and the Wilton Dairy put together. He has a contract with a number of dairies to furnish milk, which will be tested by the dairy inspector before it is sent out to the customers. Mr. Burnett has had charge of the business now for several days and there has already been a perceptible increase in the number of gallons of milk and cream disposed of daily. His many friends will wish for him the full measure of success in his business venture.

HOOKWORM DISPENSARIES

Will Open Today Under Direction of State and County

Beginning this morning dispensaries will be established in New Hanover county for the free treatment of hookworm disease and will be open until the Christmas holidays. The first one to open will be at Castle Haynes, where Dr. C. L. Pridgen, of the State Board of Health, who will have charge, will spend practically all day. Every person in that section of the county is cordially invited to visit the dispensary and be examined and if found to be infected with the disease will be treated free of charge. All who have any reason to believe they are infected with the disease should embrace this opportunity to be examined and treated. Dr. Pridgen will be at Castle Haynes every Tuesday to and including Tuesday, December 19th; Middle Sound on Wednesdays to and including the 20th; Greenville Sound on Thursdays, to and including the 21st; Myrtle Grove on Fridays to and including December 22nd, and at Wilmington Saturdays to and including the 23rd. This will take Dr. Pridgen right up to the holidays.

The dispensaries will be conducted by the State Board of Health acting in conjunction with the County Commissioners. It is hoped that thousands will avail themselves of the opportunity to be examined during the month. Dr. Pridgen wound up his work in Pender county at Rocky Point last Saturday, when he examined 400 persons.

BONDHOLDERS WERE TO MEET.

Sewerage Matter Was to Have Had Consideration Yesterday.

Iredell Meares, Esq., local attorney for the bondholders of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, was notified Sunday of a meeting of the bondholders scheduled to be held in Philadelphia yesterday, for the purpose, it is said, of deciding what they will do with regard to the resolutions passed by the City Council last week calling off negotiations for the purchase of the plant and instructing the city attorney to notify the company to extend its pipes wherever water mains have been laid. Under the resolution this work must be begun in 30 days from date of the meeting at which it was adopted. It is possible that the sewerage matter will receive some consideration at the meeting of the Council this afternoon and it is not improbable that the bondholders will have another proposition for the Council to consider either at the meeting today or at a later date.

Supper and Meeting Tonight

The Wilmington Retail Merchants' Association will hold an important meeting in the banquet room of the Masonic Temple this evening, following a supper, which will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The programme includes an address by Mr. Chas. N Evans, president of the Southern National Bank, on "Practical Suggestions on Basing and Obtaining Credit." There will also be remarks by Mr E. H. Munson, who was a delegate to the State convention some months ago; President Hall, Vice President B. C. Moore, Secretary S. L. Keyes and others.

ANOTHER "LONE MARINER."

Capt. Wm. S. Douglass, of Magnolia, Mass., on His Way to Miami, Fla.

On his way from Magnolia, Mass., his home, to Miami, Fla., alone, in a small naphtha launch, "Rosebud" answering again the call of the mighty deep, Capt. Wm. S. Douglass, formerly a steamboat captain and at that time a frequent visitor to Wilmington, put in at Wrightsville Beach Saturday and came to the city Sunday for supplies, expecting to resume his journey yesterday with Southport as his objective point for the night. He left Magnolia September 13th, and has been in two severe storms, being almost shipwrecked in each.

Capt. Douglass is familiarly known on the Atlantic coast as "Captain Bill". He retired some years ago, but the old love for the ocean and seafaring returned with such force that he concluded to make a trip along the coast, using the inside route wherever possible. Capt. Douglass stated that he is making a chart and that in a book he expects to write of his trip he will emphasize the importance of the proposed inland waterway. He thinks that the inland waterway will be an even bigger thing for the coastal towns than the Panama Canal and believes it only a matter of a few years until the waterway will be completed as planned.

ANNUAL SERMON TO JUNIORS.

Preached at St. Andrew's Church by Pastor Sunday Night.

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Sunday night the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, preached the annual sermon to the local councils of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, some 200 of whom were in attendance. Dr. McClure preached one of the finest sermons that it has been the pleasure of his congregation to hear and the services were edifying and inspiring not alone to the Juniors but to the others of the congregation as well. The Juniors met at their council hall on Market street at 7:30 o'clock and proceeded to the church in a body. During the evening three selections were rendered by the Acme Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. W. B. Muse, W. A. McGirt, W. R. Dosher and Albert Dosher, which was a very pleasing feature of the services.

At the conclusion of the service, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., in behalf of the two councils, presented to Dr. McClure a basket full of beautiful flowers in token of the esteem and love in which he is held by members of the Junior Order and in appreciation of his fine sermon. Dr. McClure expressed his deep appreciation of the gift, which came as a most welcome surprise to him.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock. There is nothing of special interest scheduled for consideration, it is said.

—A car of the Tidewater Power Company struck the automobile of Mr. S. J. Springer as the machine was being driven into the yard at the rear of his residence on Princess street, Sunday evening. The machine was slightly damaged.

—It is understood that Mrs. Gussie Greer will leave today for Boston, where she will make another effort to obtain possession of her children, which was denied her by the decision of a Massachusetts judge after hearing the facts in the case a few days ago.

—The mixed meeting held by the Y. M. C. A. in the Bijou Theatre Sunday was without doubt the most successful meeting yet held this Fall. "Sunshine" Hawks' address on the Bible and the Gideons was a masterpiece and the local secretary received many expressions of appreciation from those who heard the lecture for giving the opportunity of hearing this Apostle of Sunshine.

ANOTHER TRIP TO SOUTHPORT

W., B. & S. Will Run Thanksgiving Day Excursion to Seaport City

The W., B. & S. Railroad gives notice elsewhere in today's Star of the second excursion to Southport, Thursday, Nov. 30th, Thanksgiving Day. The company advertises fine quail, squirrel and wild turkey shooting at Bolivia, Jonesville, Moore's Creek, Town Creek and intermediate points. The train will leave the union station promptly at 8:30 A. M. Thursday morning and leaving Southport on the return trip at 5 P. M. The trip Thursday of last week was hugely enjoyed by the large crowd present and the one Thursday will doubtless prove interesting and pleasant to all who go. Southport is a charming place to visit and the nimrods who care for quail and squirrel shooting will find many places to interest them along the route.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.

Negro Man and Woman Thought to Have Stolen Furniture.

Ephraim Brown and Eugene Scarborough, a young colored couple, were arrested yesterday morning by Hall Officers Joe S. Lane and J. H. Davis on charges of larceny of two tables from Mr. Preston Cumming's antique shop on South Front street. The arrest was made at the second-hand furniture store of Messrs. W. J. Davis & Co., on Second street, where the negroes had carried the tables in an attempt to dispose of them.

Mr. Cumming uses the building on South Front street as a storehouse for valuable old furniture and on Friday night it was entered and two fine tables and a set of very old brass andirons were taken. Policeman Applebury found the shop open early Saturday morning and reported the matter to headquarters. Saturday night the police were notified by Mr. Davis that a negro had brought two tables there and tried to sell them and that he had told the man to leave the tables with him until Monday morning, suspecting at the time that the furniture was stolen property. The police communicated with Mr. Cumming and he identified the two tables as those taken from his storehouse.

Accordingly, when the negro Brown returned to the store yesterday morning, accompanied by the Scarborough woman, Mr. Davis promptly notified police headquarters and the officers hurried around and made the arrest.

At the station the man and woman told conflicting stories as to how they came by the furniture. The woman said that the tables had been given to her by a white lady for whom she had been working, but when asked as to the name and address of the white lady she was at loss for a reply.

Brown gave his name to the police at first as Simmons, then Moore and later gave his right name. He said that the tables had been brought to the woman's house by a negro named Julius, Friday night and that the woman had asked his help in disposing of them.

The case will probably be tried in the Recorder's court this morning.

MORE PETTY BURGLARIES.

Two Houses Entered Sunday Night, But Small Loot Secured.

Two more petty burglaries were reported to the police station yesterday, both of which occurred Sunday night, one at the home of Mrs. Edgar G. Parmele, No. 405 Princess street, and the other at the home of Mr. F. H. Bagg, on Eighth, between Market and Princess. At neither place did the thief secure more than a small amount of money.

Mrs. Parmele's home was entered from the rear porch. The thief passed through the dining room and entered the room of Mr. C. B. Parmele, where he picked up a pair of trousers and carried them into the back yard. He took only a pocket book containing a small sum of money, leaving the trousers in the yard. Mr. Parmele's watch was in plain sight of the thief when he took the trousers, but the man evidently was looking only for money. This fact was borne out at Mr. Bagg's home, where three savings banks containing small sums of money were taken. The police believe that one person is responsible for all the petty thieveries that have been committed recently.

RETURNED FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

No Change This Year in Pastors of Local M. E. Churches.

Although it was a foregone conclusion that there would be no changes in the pastors of the Wilmington Methodist churches this year and that those now serving so faithfully and acceptably would be returned, there was, nevertheless much rejoicing among the congregations of the several churches yesterday when news came from Kinston that the conference appointments had been read and that without exception the Wilmington ministers were assigned to service in this city for another conference year. The pastors are very popular with their respective congregations. Not only are the pastors returned but the presiding elder, Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, who is popular throughout the district, will labor in this district for another year. The pastors of the local Methodist churches are: Rev. J. C. Wooten, Grace church; Rev. G. T. Adams, Fifth Street; Rev. W. L. Rexford, Bladen Street, and Rev. E. C. Sell, Trinity.

MR. ALEX McKENZIE PASSES.

Well Known Robeson Citizen Dies at Rowland, N. C.—Funeral.

News reached the city yesterday of the death of Mr. Alexander McKenzie, a well known citizen of Robeson county, which occurred yesterday morning at his home at Rowland, N. C., after a brief illness. Mr. McKenzie was a native of Scotland and had lived since a young man in Robeson county, formerly near Elrod, N. C., but had resided with his family for ten years or longer at Rowland. He was a man of the strictest integrity, highest sense of honor, a devoted Presbyterian and was universally esteemed wherever he was known. He is survived by his wife and three children. Mr. Angus D. McKenzie, a prominent business man of Rowland, and two daughters, Misses Mary Belle and Kate McKenzie. The family have the tenderest sympathy of a host of friends everywhere in the bereavement which has come to them. The funeral of Mr. McKenzie will be conducted at noon today and the interment will be at Lebanon Church, near Rowland, the burying ground of the family for many years.

200 coat suits just received, direct from factory, will be sold at from $3.00 to $5.00 less than heretofore. Come down to Gaylord's and take a look. **

Pure Food or Poor Food?

When so eminent a food expert as Dr. Wiley not only approves, but actually advocates the use of a product, you may be absolutely assured of its purity and healthfulness. In a recent speech Dr. Wiley commended in strongest terms the use of Cotton Oil as one of our most valuable food constituents, stating that undoubtedly better health would follow its general use. Cottolene—the perfect shortening—has been the leading product in Cotton Oil cooking fats for over a quarter of a century. You will find the doctors all with you when you use Cottolene in place of hog fat.

..Theatrical..

Yesterday afternoon and evening Wilmington playgoers were afforded their first opportunity of witnessing a presentation of "Dante's Inferno." The Hell of the great Italian poet's imaginative vision being shown in motion pictures that are truly wonderful and impressive. Alexander Parke, who accompanies the production with a clear and comprehensible lecture deserves a special word of recognition for the masterful and finished manner in which he handles his end of the work.

So clear are the scenes described that even a child can understand what it is all about. The attention of the audience last night was held feverishly, expressions of sympathetic horror being whispered, when many would forget that they were not really accompanying the poet in his journey through the land of punishment, and, indeed, many were for this immortal poem, "The Divine Comedy" of which "Inferno" is the first part, is defined by no less an authority than James Russell Lowell as being 'a diary of the human soul" in its journey upwards from error through repentance to atonement with God.

Wilmingtonians are to have four more chances of seeing this weird, though helpful, massive production of moving pictures, as the attraction is booked for four more presentations at the Academy. Matinees will be given this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 3:30 o'clock, and also tonight and tomorrow night, beginning at the usual hour. Seats are now on sale at Plummer's.

Big Thanksgiving Attraction.

The Academy is indeed fortunate this year in its Thanksgiving Day attraction. None better could have possibly been obtained than "The Thief," and, as is customary on a holiday, two performances will be given. So Wilmington theatre-goers will have the rare chance of witnessing "The Thief" at both matinee and night Thursday.

The attraction is one on the order of "The Gamblers" and held New York in a vice-like grip of intensity for over a year. The company on the present tour has been highly praised. Among the many lavish notices is the following from the Raleigh News and Observer:

"Powerful in its dramatic intensity, presented by a cast which most adequately handled this play of wonderful power, "The Thief" the great production of Henri Bernstein, was enjoyed and applauded by two enthusiastic audiences at the Academy of Music at matinee and night performances yesterday. The management is entitled to praise for securing an attarction so pleasing for Raleigh.

"The play is of the kind that plays on the heart strings, and its lesson is that a great love may reach down into the depths and take up the one who has fallen before temptation. And in 'The Thief' this theme is worked out in a startling fashion, one that fascinates in every phase of its development.

"The play is a strong one, and the company which presented it here is a strong one."

At the Bijou.

According to custom, and it also seems to the inevitable, the Bijou started off another week in most glorious manner yesterday. And it opened up, too, what is, no doubt, going to prove the biggest week artistically in the history of the popular amusement palace. The films yesterday were of the very latest type and also of the very best. There was not one of even half-way interest among the lot. Each was one of intensity, or wholesome comedy nature, while the music was all new and awfully jolly. Today's Bijou bill is going to be another corker, and it will consist of what is the latest and the greatest, because the Bijou gets the pick of the very freshest, and displays the latest films just as quick as they are exhibited in the larger theatres of the North. The music today will be another big and bright galaxy of latest gems, and will include a swell song triumph by Mr. Frank Banks, "Wilmington's favorite" singer. Of course, the Bijou is always comfortable. The chill weather is left behind by whoever enters the Bijou. All is warm and cozy within.

The Popular Grand.

In view of the recent Chinese disturbances, peculiar interest will attach to a big Kalem production of "The Smugglers," which will be the topliner in motion pictures at The Grand Theatre today. The picture tells all about this Chinese industry on the Pacific coast, a thrilling production, the scenes of which are laid on the rocky shore of Southern California. Ruth Roland will be seen in the picture as "Rose" and the piece will be found beautifully acted. In addition to this there will be a Lubin feature, "A Blind Deception," in which will be answered the question, "Can the blind lead the blind?" This is a beautiful love story and a third picture will be a great comedy that will be appreciated. Mr. Morgan will sing "Fairy Moon," a beautifully illustrated song that is sure to please. The Grand is well ventilated and is always comfortable and cool. Small prices still obtain and friends will find this a most convenient meeting place downtown.

Stops a Deep-Seated Cough in a Hurry

A Family Supply of Unequaled Cough Remedy for 50c—Money Refunded if It Fails.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large proportion of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one that anyone can make. A pint of granulated sugar, with ½ pint of warm water, stirred for 2 minutes, gives you as good syrup as money can buy.

A 50-cent bottle of Pinex, mixed in a pint bottle with home-made sugar syrup, gives you a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-mixed for $2.50. There's a clear saving of $2.00. Full directions in package.

And money couldn't buy a quicker, better remedy. Takes hold at once, gives almost instant relief, and usually stops the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours. It stimulates the appetite, is slightly laxative and has a pleasant taste—children take it willingly. Splendid for hoarseness, asthma, chest pains and other throat troubles, and unequaled for prompt results in whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of imported Norway White Pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements. Simply mix it as directed with sugar syrup or strained honey, and it is ready for use.

Used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BARNEY LEAR TRIED

Gets Four Years for Larceny—Took An Appeal—Other Cases

Frank Lear, alias "Barney" Lear, a young white man, was the principal defendant in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, facing 17 different counts, each one charging him with larceny. He submitted in all the cases and in four different cases he was given a sentence of 12 months each on the county roads, each sentence to begin upon the expiration of the preceding one, judgment being suspended in the other 13 cases. From this sentence Lear took an appeal to the Superior Court, an action that came as a surprise to the prosecution, as they felt that they were letting the man off light. The prosecuting attorney then moved that the 13 remaining cases be continued instead of suspending judgment in them, and this was done.

However, it was learned that Lear does not wish to go to the county roads, but desires to be sentenced to a term in the State penitentiary. He stated that he would prefer a sentence of 10 years in the State's prison to one of four years on the county roads. It is said that he is addicted to the drug habit and wishes to be sent to the penitentiary because he feels that he will be better able to rid himself of the habit there than he would on the county roads. It was also stated by court officials, in an unofficial capacity, yesterday afternoon, that the appeal would probably be withdrawn.

Lear is said to be a confirmed kleptomaniac, and he had only been released from a four-year term on the county roads for wholesale larceny of a few months when he was arrested under one of the present cases against him.

John Reed, colored, was found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon and was given the alternative of paying a fine of $15 and costs or serving a three-months term on the county roads. On a similar charge Joe Allen, colored, was given the alternative of paying a fine of $25 and costs or serving three months on the roads.

Edward Nixon, Eliza Nixon and Elsie Miller, three negroes living outside the city, were tried on a charge of violating the ordinance prohibiting the sale of fresh meat until it has been salted for 10 days. The negroes were found not guilty.

John Brodie, colored, was found not guilty of the larceny of some lumber from the Wilmington Marine Railway Company.

A warrant charging Ira Williams, colored, with the larceny of a watch from C. H. Dickson, colored, was amended to charge forcible trespass and Williams was fined $15 and costs. Fred Reeves, colored, on a charge of forcible trespass, was assessed $10 and costs.

Eight drunks had accumulated over night and Sunday and they were assessed the usual amount in court yesterday.

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Thos. H. Wright to Jane F. Cutlar Lee, for $100 and other considerations, lot on Wrightsville Beach extension, same being on Northeast corner of Charlotte street and Ocean avenue, 50x150 feet in size; Mike Jacobs and wife to W. M. Hodges, for $10 and other considerations, tract in Masonboro township, adjoining property of Wm. Hollis, containing about one-half acre.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BOLLES

Beautiful Services Held From First Presbyterian Church Yesterday

In the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, beautiful and impressive funeral services were held from the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in honor of the memory of Mrs. Abbie Chadbourn Bolles, beloved wife of Dr. C. P. Bolles and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn, who entered into rest Saturday afternoon after a brief illness.

The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. John M. Wells. There were many beautiful floral designs, these bearing silent testimony to the love and high esteem in which Mrs. Bolles was held in the community. She lived a beautiful Christian life and none knew her but to admire and esteem her for her manifold womanly virtues and her passing has left a void place in the home that she loved so well, the church of which she was a member from girlhood and in the community in which she had spent her entire life.

Following the services at the church the body was tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where it was laid to rest. The pall-bearers were: Honorary, Dr. Thos. S. Burbank, Dr. A. H. Harriss, Messrs. Hugh MacRae, H. C. McQueen, A. G. Ricaud and W. M. Cumming; active, Dr. George C. Worth, Messrs. C. C. Chadbourn, J. V. Grainger, S. M. Boatwright, John D. Bellamy, Jr., and Walter Smallbones.

TURKEY AND CRANBERRIES.

Little Difference in This and Last Year's Thanksgiving Prices.

Around the grocery stores and market houses now the festive Thanksgiving turkey has the center of the stage, and everywhere they can be seen gobbling stridently from myriad of coops or marshaled head downward in plump array from the hooks along the wall. Compared with last year there is very little difference in the prevailing prices, as they are selling at 20 cents in the feather or 30 cents per pound dressed. They sold last year for possibly a few cents less than this. Cranberries, the accompanying side dish, are retailing for 15 cents, slightly above last year's prices. So the Thanksgiving dinner this year will cost just about the same as it did last year.

ALONG THE RIVER

Yesterday a Quiet Day Along the Water Front

Yesterday was an unusually quiet day in the shipping line, there being scarcely no movements at all at the port.

The Revenue Cutter Seminole went down to Southport for a several days' target practice.

The Schr. John S. Emery, which has been at Southport for several days, coming into port there while on voyage on account of the sickness of the captain, continued on her voyage yesterday.

City Water Supply

Mr. R. C. Cantwell, superintendent of the municipal waterworks plant, yesterday received from Raleigh a report of the analysis of the water supply for November, as follows: "Sediment, 0; color—Platinum—Cobalt standard, 0; turbudity—Silica standard, 0; odor, cold, 0; odor, hot, slight; alkalinity (in terms of Calcium carbonate), 5.0; chlorine, 7; nitrogen as nitrates, trace; nitrogen as nitrites, 0; free ammonia, .02; albuminoid ammonia, .078; temporary hardness, 5.0; colon bacilli in 0; colon bacilli in 10 c. c., 0; total number of bacteria per c. c. at 38 degrees C. 17; total number of bacteria per acid producers, 0."

May be Detained at Charleston

Yesterday's Charleston News and Courier: "The army steamer Gen. G. W. Getty, from Wilmington, which has been engaged in towing targets during target practice at Fort Moultrie, may be detained in port for some time yet. If the Gen. Weeks goes to dock for repairs, which in all probability she will do at this time, the Gen. Getty will be employed to make the trips between the mainland and the Island until the Gen. Weeks is in commission again. If the Gen. Weeks does not go to the docks for repairs the Gen. Getty will sail today or tomorrow for Wilmington."

The French Market Coffee Drinkers Could Not Be Fooled

Only the wonderful mountain-side coffee from Jamaica, blended with choicest berries from Guatemala, Venezuela and the Pan-American countries, would satisfy them. Cheap coffees could not be combined into that marvelously smooth and deliciously aromatic beverage that has been served for over a century at the French Market in New Orleans.

"Voyons! C'est le même que nous avons bu a Paris!"
("Behold! It is the same as we drank in Paris!")

one emigre would say to another as they sipped their coffee in the French Market.

Then—and for a century since—

French Market Coffee

could be had nowhere in America but at the French Market in New Orleans. But NOW you all may serve it daily at your own table. For the old French blend is perpetuated by

COTTON MARKET MORE ACTIVE

Close Steady, But at Decline of Several Points—Heavy Southern Selling—Receipts and Futures. Spot Closed Quiet.

New York, Nov. 27.—The cotton market was more active today and prices made new low records on all deliveries except December, as a result of increased aggressiveness on the part of local sellers, scattering liquidation and talk of easier Southern spot markets. The close was steady, but at a net decline of 9@13 points. The market opened easy at a decline of 4@11 points under a renewal of Saturday's selling movement, which had the encouragement of lower Liverpool cables, reports of heavier offerings of actual in the English market, and private wires from the South, claiming that the interior was offering spot cotton more freely. There was an active demand at the initial level and rallies of 4 or 5 points occurred right after the call on the more active months, but there was heavy Southern selling here. Local bears evidently regarded the talk of easier Southern spots as foreshadowing the break in the ranks of holders which they had been predicting for a month or more past, and during the middle of the day the market sold 9 to 14 points net lower. January touched 9.81 and all later deliveries made new low records for the season, also, while December sold off to 9.06, or within 1 point of the low record established late last month. Trading became a little less active around this range and slight rallies occurred from the lowest, but with early reports from Southern spot markets showing declines in line with the private advices circulating earlier in the day, improvements were not maintained and last prices were within a point or two of the lowest. A prominent New Orleans authority issued on estimate placing the crop at 14,835,000 bales, exclusive of linters, which was said to point to a commercial crop of nearly 15,400,000 bales, and an Alabama spot firm estimated the full crop at 14,885,000 bales, but these estimates seemed to attract less attention than the reports of increased willingness on the part of Southern holders to sell spot supplies in the interior, and there seemed to be little doubt from around the ring that expectations of weaker Southern markets, together with increased Southern offerings of futures were the factors chiefly responsible for the renewal of local bear pressure and scattering liquidation. Trade interests and shorts were good buyers on the decline.

Receipts at the ports today, 72,000 bales, against 80,429 last week, and 71,221 last year. For the week, 475,000 bales, against 487,761 last week, and 438,567 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 12,411 bales, against 17,422 last year, and at Houston, 35,123 bales, against 25,876 last year.

Spot closed quiet, ten points lower; middling uplands, 9.30; do. gulf, 9.55; sales, 100 bales.

Futures closed more active.

Starts Much Trouble

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. Its the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c. at R. R. Bellamy's.

STOCK MARKET STIMULATED

Caused by Accumulated Buying Orders—Movement Fell Back Until Little of Advance Was Left—Total Sales.

New York, November 27.—Buying orders, which accumulated over the week end, stimulated the stock market for a time today. Some brokers reported a larger volume of business and bull traders said hope fully that outside interest had quickened after many months of pronounced apathy, and prophesied a change in the market from its ultra professional character. But the day's movement as a whole fell back steadily until little was left of the advance. Some stocks, including United States steel, Reading and Lehigh Valley fell to below Saturday's close. The action of the market seemed to indicate that it was still of a transitory character, governed by the hour to hour movements of the dominant professional operaters.

Union Pacific was the most conspicuous stock on the advance, and gained two points.

The strength of American Tobacco issues brought the stocks into prominence again. The preferred stock rose 2⅜, and on the curb the common stock increased its recent large advance by 21 points, selling at 511, the highest price reached since the final decree of dissolution was entered against the company, and within nine points of the record figure for that issue.

Call money hardened today and some loans were made at 3½ per cent., the highest rate since the opening of the year. The bond market became irregular, after an early display of firmness. Total sales, par value, $2,978,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 509,000 shares.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Nov. 27.—The cotton goods markets were steady during the day, with orders of fair proportions recorded. Jobbers are doing a quiet house trade in consequence of the near approach of the holiday. Raw silk is higher here and in foreign markets. Dress goods are still in steady demand.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth but do dissolve in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 20 years. 50.

BUREAU SHOULD BE ENLARGED

Is Judgment of Wickersham Regarding Bureau of Corporations

Washington, Nov. 27.—The "trust busting" crusade of the federal government has demonstrated, in the judgment of Attorney General Wickersham, that the powers of the Bureau of Corporations should be enlarged and the bureau brought into closer relationship with the Department of Justice. The Attorney General will, in his annual report, recommend that the bureau be given legal authority to acquire facts regarding the operations of all corporate businesses.

The Attorney General has become a competitor of Postmaster General Hitchcock as a government economist. He will show in his annual report that the Department of Justice was run at a big profit during the fiscal year 1911 despite the large amount of trust litigation. From fines, lumber trespasses, the recovery of customs duties, etc., the legal department turned $4,000,000 into the Federal Treasury.

LAME EVERY MORNING

A Bad Back Is Always Worse in the Morning—Wilmington People Are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

Can't cure a bad back until you cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills act on sick kidneys—make you feel better, work better, rest better and sleep better.

Good deeds in Wilmington prove the merit of Doan's.

W. L. Benson, 620 S. Second St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I cheerfully re-endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and confirm the statement I gave in their praise in February, 1908. My back ached nearly all the time and I could not straighten after stooping or lifting without having a sharp pain in my loins. Mornings when I got up, I was lame and sore and I noticed that the kidney secretions contained sediment. Soon after I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Bellamy's Drug Store, I felt better in every way and it was not long before I was enjoying the best of health. My advice to anyone suffering from kidney complaint is to try Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

defeated, DePalma was game to the end and he also was wildly cheered as he finished two minutes and 11 seconds behind the winner.

The elapsed time of the six cars which finished the race was as follows:

Lozier (Ralph Mulford) 236:00.67.

Mercedes (Ralph dePalma) 238:11.95.

Mercedes (Spencer Wishart) 246:20.37.

Lozier (Harry Grant) 250:23.57.

Fiat (E. H. Parker) 254:25.88.

Pope Hummer (Louis Disbrow) 269:02.68.

The average speed of the winner was 74.07 miles an hour. His time for the 202 miles against Herricks record was 74.9.

The record for a former Vanderbilt race was 65.08 miles an hour held by Harry Grant, winner of the 1909 and 1910 races, who finished fourth today. No new world's record was hung up today except that for 202 miles as Nazarro averaged 74.15 miles for 528 milometers in the race for the Florio cup in France in 1908.

Hughie Hughes, driving a Mercer broke the former Vanderbilt record today in winning the Savannah challenge trophy light car race, traveling a distance of 222.82 miles at an average speed of 68.4. Seven cars participated in this event, which was run simultaneously with the Tiedeman trophy contest, Ford, light cars previous to the Vanderbilt race.

Frank Witt drove an E. M. F. to victory in the Tiedeman at an average speed of 58.34 for the 171.40 miles. E. M. F. cars also won second and third places in this race. Mortimer Roberts was leading by ten minutes in an Abbott-Detroit when a broken crank shaft put him out after he had gone 100 miles.

Interest now turns to the grand prize race to be run on Thanksgiving Day. The famous German Benz team led by Hemery, are entered in this contest which will be longer by seven laps than today's contest.

HUSBAND GETS ALIMONY.

According to Decision of North Dakota Supreme Court.

Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 2..—A husband sued for divorce is entitled to alimony and support under certain conditions, according to a decision of the Supreme Court, handed down today. The husband defendant declared he was entitled to alimony for his support during the trial of the case.

"A separate and equitable action as the suit of a husband against his wife will lie to compel the wife to support and maintain the husband when amply able to do so, and when she has not been deserted or abandoned by the husband, when he, because of age and infirmities, is unable to gain his own livelihood," says the Supreme Court.

PLAY GIVEN AT PRISON.

First of Its Kind Given at Atlanta Federal Prison.

Atlanta, Ga., November 27.—A performance of the play "Alias Jimmy Valentine" was given this afternoon at the Federal prison by a traveling company. It was produced at the prison auditorium with the regular scenery and with music by the prison band.

This was the first time such a play has been given at a Federal penitentiary.

"Alias Jimmy Valentine" is taken from O. Henry's story "A Retrieved Reformation," and is centered around a bank robber who has reformed and resists temptation. Valentine's specialty was working combination locks through the sense of touch.

NEGOTIATION WILL BE RESUMED

Between Department of Justice and Harvester Company.

Washington, November 27. — The suspended negotiations between the Department of Justice and the International Harvester Company, looking to the latter's disintegration under the Sherman anti-trust law, will be resumed as soon as two experts of the Bureau of Corporations complete an examination which they are now making in Chicago of the books of the corporation. This will probably require another week. Officials of the department of justice feel reasonably confident that ultimately a basis of dissolution will be agreed upon between the government and the company without litigation.

Fresno, Cal., Nov. 27.—Chester Rowell, president of the LaFollette League of California, today received a telgram from Robert M. LaFollette thanking the league for endorsing him for President. "California stands today a leader of the most enlightened progressive thought in a Democracy where all men and women are equal in self-government," the message read.

THE VIRGINIA GAME

Carolina Being Coached to the Limit for Thanksgiving

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Nov. 27.—In the special preparation for the Virginia game, Coach Bocock is mixing hard work and needed rest. Those men who are on edge he is giving only light work, while some of the more husky ones are getting all the hard work they can stand. Secret practice is being held every afternoon in perfecting the repertoire of plays that will be depended on to cross the Orange and Blue line. Nobody but the coach and the team know what they are, but 10,000 people will see them on the 30th. Secret practice will follow an hour of open practice, at which the student body, 700 strong, aided by the band, holds every afternoon a cheer and song rehearsal on the field.

The exact line-up for Thanksgiving is still problematic to everyone, except Bocock, and perhaps he doesn't know. In several places the team will be different from that which the Richmond and Norfolk people saw. The conitnued lay-off of Venable and the slight injury of Nicholson make the ends uncertain. It is a hard matter to choose between three or four men for right halfback.

There is no deep feeling of over confidence in these parts. The general impression here is that the first team that makes a slip or pulls off a bone-head play is going to find itself too far behind to catch up. That the student body feels that the chances are even is shown in the fact that the largest number who have ever taken a special to Richmond have already signified their intentions of eating turkey in Richmond on Thanksgiving Day.

Bocock was evidently impressed with the Virginia strength in the Georgetown game. He knows the speed of Todd. Captain Winston left the speedy back far in the distance in the 100-yard dash in the Southern Inter-Collegiate Track Meet at Charlottesville last Spring. It remains to be seen who is the faster in a football suit. It will be a great battle between Todd and Winston.

Carolina came out of the Washington-Lee game in good condition. No chances were taken with the first string men after the game seemed safely stored in the first quarter. The second string men held their own. No formations were given away with Virginia well represented on the side lines. Virginia, too, undoubtedly did not show its whole hand against Georgetown. Those who have kept up with the history of Southern football can trust Bocock and Lambeth to pull off something worth while.

The best practice scrimmage of the season took place on Friday afternoon. It was the first real line-up since the Washington Lee game, and as a result Varsity and the scrubs were both keen for the affray. Every player realized that his chance for getting into the Virginia game depended on the showing made in this practice.

The ball was put in the Varsity 25-yard line and the first string men were told to carry it across. The scrubs fought desperately, but were absolutely powerless before the Varsity attack. Eight touch-downs and one field goal were the net results of 40 minutes play. Captain "Bob" made two touch-downs; Seigler, Chambers and Manning, one each. Little "Bill" Tillett got away with three from mid-field. Coach, team and college were greatly pleased with the showing.

GOLDSBORO NEWS NOTES.

Superior Court Convened—Shooting Scrape—Death of Good Man.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 27.—Superior Court convened here this morning for a two weeks' term with Judge Peebles presiding. Altogether there will be nearly 50 blind tiger cases to be disposed of, outside of which the criminal docket is very light.

Yesterday afternoon a detective by the name of Byrd, from Durham, was accidentally shot in the abdomen by another officer who has been in the city assisting Byrd to catch blind tigers. The shooting was an accident so both parties claim. Byrd is in serious condition and at this writing it is the opinion of attending physicians that his wound may prove fatal. A brother of the wounded officer arrived in the city this morning to see that he is well cared for.

In the quiet of his room at the Arlington Hotel, where he has languished only for a day and night, his devoted wife and son watching the ebbing of an active eventful life until the "fluttering pulse stood still," Mr. Furman Tudor fell asleep in death Saturday night at 11 o'clock, aged 42 years. With his passing from earthly scenes a loving, devoted father, a most kind hearted and devoted friend to his companions will be sadly missed. Mr. Tudor was proprietor of the Gem Cafe in this city and possessed of a jolly and bright disposition, was always popular among a wide circle of friends, and his passing away causes sorrow to these as well as the many acquaintances he formed while in the cafe business. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon and the interment was made in Willow Dale cemetery. The deceased is survived by a wife and one grown son.

TO ERECT MONUMENTS

In Memory of Confederate Soldiers and Women.

Memphis, Tenn., November 27.—Two hundred thousand dollars will be raised by the United Sons of Confederate Veterans to erect monuments to the memory of Southern soldiers and to the memory of Southern women who were active in the cause of the South during the Civil war. Plans to secure the money were discussed today by the executive council of the organization at its annual meeting. One plan favored was the inauguration of a campaign asking voluntary contributions of every camp in the organization. Another plan is to level an assessment on each camp. The matter will come up tomorrow for final consideration.

Brunswick, Ga., Nov. 27.—For the first time in this State that a white man has paid the death penalty for killing a negro, A. J. O'Berry, aged 26, was hanged today at St. Mary's, Camden. O'Berry had killed a negro woman and her daughter, the motive being robbery. He had confessed the crime and the State Bardon Board had declined to act on his case.

AFFAIRS AT LUMBERTO

Ex-Sheriff Floyd Passes--Shooting at McDonald's—Other Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 27.—Ex-Sheriff Frank J. Floyd, one of Lumberton's most highly esteemed citizens, died this morning at 6:15 after being confined to his home only two or three days. He had been in declining health for the past several months but was on the streets last week as usual. Mr. Floyd would have been 68 years old next March. He was a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted when but 16 years old. During the eighties he served the country as sheriff, being elected for four consecutive terms. Later he was chief of police of Lumberton for several years. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Pearl Floyd, five brothers and two sisters. The funeral will be conducted from the First Baptist church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. C. H. Durham, the pastor, officiating, and the interment will be in Meadow Brook cemetery. The members of the Masonic Lodge have been called to meet at 10:30 to attend the services in a body.

There was a shooting scrape near McDonald's, 12 miles from here, Saturday evening in which Aaron Lewis, colored, was perhaps fatally shot by Walter Whitaker, also colored. Report says Lewis shot Whitaker in the left hand with a shot gun and as he turned to run Whitaker shot him in the back with a pistol. Whitaker was brought to jail yesterday and Drs. McPhaul and Pope amputated a portion of his hand, including the thumb and index finger.

Mr. William Howell, of Howellsville, died at the Thompson Hospital this afternoon and later the remains were transferred to his home in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy McNeill found on their porch in East Lumberton Saturday night a neat package which upon investigation proved to be a fine baby boy, probably 10 days old. We do not know who donated the youngster but Mr. McNeill took it in and is said to be the proudest man in town.

Mr. Sandy MsKenzie, one of Rowland's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, died this morning at an early hour. Mr. McKenzie was a native of Scotland but had been for many years one of Robeson's most honored citizens. He was 83 years old. The funeral will be conducted at Lebanon Presbyterian church tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

Mr. W. C. Powell, of Orum, was brought to the Thompson Hospital Saturday, and his condition has been very serious but was thought to be slightly better late this evening.

Mr. James Kerr, manager of the Pope Drug Co., will leave tomorrow morning via V. C. & S., for Ramseur where on Wednesday he will wed Miss Elizabeth Thomas——Rev. E. M. Hoyle returned tonight from Kinston where he attended conference. Mr. Hoyle has been assigned to Greenville and is succeeded here by Rev. Mr. Bradley——It is stated tonight on what seems good authority that the Seaboard will assume control of the R. & C. Friday, December 1st.

ITALIANS MAKE CAPTURE.

Take 300 Turks and Arabs Prisoners—Italian Loss Light.

Rome, Italy, Nov. 2.. — The Italians found 1,500 dead and wounded in houses in the Oasis after yesterday's battle at Henni, according to special news telegrams received here. There were also 72 dead found at other places scattered about the Oasis.

The Italians also captured 300 Turkish and Arab prisoners, including several Turkish officers. The battle was very severe, especially in the vicinity of Henni, where a series of bayonet encounters occurred. The Italian loss was "relatively light."

General Canevas' plan of battle was carried out to the letter and the Italian troops are now in possession of Henni and Fort Mesri.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 27.—Before the battleship Oregon, which left this harbor late today for Bremer this harbor late today for Bremerton harbor, on Puget Sound, had proceeded far beyond the Golden Gate, she was recalled by wireless orders from Washington. No explanation was contained in the Washington telegram other than the battleship should remain here, pending further orders.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER.

Lawyer Who Killed Another Cleared on Self-Defense.

Winston-Salem, N. C., November 27.—Attorney Thomas Kellam, aged 23, who shot and killed Henry G. Whitaker, aged 63, another lawyer, at Pilot Mountain on October 12th, was acquitted in the Surry Superior Court, the jury returning a verdict of justifiable homicide, after fifteen hours' deliberation. Bad blood existed between the two men for some time and Kellam charged that Whitaker was coming at him with a drawn knife. An open knife was found beside Whitaker's body after he was shot.
